Vanguard Legends, Mentors & Torchbearers!

By Nikki Isaacs, Senior Editor

When one learns about the legacy families of Anna Maria Rietzinger and James Clinton Belcher, it appears divine providence guided their journey to unravel the most egregious criminal activity on the planet. Their tenacity, decade after decade, to ferret out the proof and file cease and desist orders or affidavits for cause are remarkable as they became our heroes. Their enduring resolve to create a roadmap for us demonstrates their desire for humanity to live in peace, unfettered by pathological criminal enterprises poised against humanity. The two traveled the world and met with the Pope, bankers, and relevant parties to resolve the criminality to no avail. Yet, they moved onward, filing more legal briefs, leaving an archive for future generations, filled with legal notices against the Vatican, the British Monarchy, and the international banking cartel, aka the Lord Mayor of London.

It is with tremendous honor and pride that your students dedicate this national publication to your life's work. To date, 50 state assemblies and nine foreign nations are responding to your call for action through over 5,000 articles. The world and America are forever in your debt. We pray that you witness all the assemblies standing lawfully as a tribute to you and James in partnership with our love of America and freedom. In this newsletter, we will briefly examine Louise Campbell-Anthony's groundbreaking national program that intends to accomplish precisely that.

Hereditary Head of State Proves to be True Leader of America

By Louise Campbell-Anthony, Co-Editor and Publisher

The United States Government is not the American Government. It is employed as a federal subcontractor by the American Government.

U.S. Citizens are not the same as Americans who are sovereigns in their own right and not citizens at all.

America is not named after Amerigo Vespucci, but after the people who initially populated it, the Norman French "Armoricans".

You know the saying, there's only two things you have to do and that's die and pay taxes. Well, that's not true either. You do have to die, but you don't have to pay income taxes.

What more do we think we know but is not actually based in fact.

Imagine being told at the age of 60 by your mother on her death bed, "Son, you are the One."

Your response, "The One for what, Mom?"

"Son, you will have to be the one to bring America out of its chattel slavery and ignorance back onto the land of the free and the home of brave."

"Mom, what do you mean by 'back onto the land?'"

"Son, I know this will be hard for you to take in all of this and you will have a lot of questions. Let me explain why we had to keep moving you from place to place to keep you alive and safe in anticipation that this day would come. You see, Son, you are the hereditary Head of State of our great country. You are the only one left with the provenance to bring the original States of the Union back into session after almost 150 years of its so-called interregnum. America stands at the door of being left in its chains of slavery permanently and irreversibly if you don't step into your office now.

And Son, there's more. The wife we chose for you, Anna Maria Wilhelmina Hanna Sophia Riezinger-von Reitzenstein von Lettow-Vorbeck, she is the heir to the Saint Germain Family Trust, one of the wealthiest donor family estates in the world that was willed to our States of the Union to fund all of government and relieve all the people of poverty and ignorance forever. We knew that you would need her provenance to be able to accomplish this grave feat of breaking the financial chains of slavery that has kept America bound for over a century.

Sit down, Son, it's time that you knew your hidden family history.”

Sounds like a good storyline for a great movie, doesn't it?

Well, it's not just a storyline. It's based in fact, and although some of my details are not accurate, the indication that some divine providence was involved is not.

This man's name is James Clinton, born alive of William de Guilleroi, right-wise king; King of Powys; King of England; King of Normandy; King of Gaul; Head of State for The United States of America.

Our Founding Fathers deliberately placed the authority to summon the States of the Union into session in the hands of three entities as a fail-safe plan. Those three entities occupied the three jurisdictions where the international governing powers of any and all Nations exist — the land, the sea and the air jurisdictions.

The States of the Union themselves occupy the land jurisdiction. A quorum of nine member States can call the States into session. However, after 150 years, Texas was the only organic State standing.

The President of The United States of America occupies the sea jurisdiction. America has not had an actual American President since Charles Wilson in 1872 due to the American Civil War takeover perpetrated by Abraham Lincoln and the Union Army mercenaries which placed America under a perpetual military occupation.

So the last entity left standing and viable was the Office of the Hereditary Head of State who occupies the air jurisdiction. Our Head of State, James Clinton Belcher, was the One who restored our American Civil Government on October 21, 2017 bringing it back from the brink of imminent collapse and takeover. No one else, not Trump, not Russell J. Gould, not any organized group of so-called State Assemblies or State Republics have the provenance, standing or authority to do this — a very critical fact that you need to know.

James Belcher, July 4, and Sons of the Revolution

By James Belcher, Hereditary Head of State for The United States of America

My ancestors splashed ashore in 1608 and helped found the City of Boston. They built the Old South Church and served it as parishioners and ministers on and off for two centuries. They attended Harvard and founded Princeton. Their family crest was the model for the Great Seal of the United States. They lived in Braintree, Massachusetts, where they were landowners and lawyers at the same time and in the same place as John Adams. Like him, they were patriots. My direct ancestor, William Belcher, served with the Connecticut volunteers as a Lieutenant Colonel in the Battle of White Plains and other actions throughout New York. I am, as a result, a Son of the Revolution.

As we come up against the 240th anniversary of The Declaration of Independence on this June 24, 2016, I have to wonder what my ancestors would say to me now. I can hear grumbling and see shaking of shadowed heads in tri-corn hats. What is our nation thinking of? How have we gone so far astray?

Yesterday--- I read an article Nancy Battle posted and which Arnie Rosner reposted--- supposedly written by a Judge who, via his own route, discovered the depths of corruption and depravity within the federal and judicial systems.

As part of his conclusions, he presented the Founding Fathers as self-interested and greedy men, who, when they penned the famous words, "We, the People" and spoke of "our progeny" means only their own progeny.

Nothing could be farther from the Truth. It is a disservice so vile that I feel compelled to mount my bully pulpit and point out that the word "people" means "militia" in Hebrew, and that is and was and still remains its meaning: "We, the Militia...."

Those who keep and bear arms. Those who guard the sanctity of our peace. Those who stand against tyranny and for the rights of Everyman. Those who fulfill the responsibilities and claim the rights of Americans. We, the People, the Militia.

And the progeny of the Militia, too.

Clearly, it is only the smallness, the sneakiness, the greediness, the corrupt modes of thinking and being with which the "judge" has been inured and associated that led him to make such an outrageous claim against the character and the motives of our Founding Fathers. His glass has been colored, not by time, but by relativism and double-speak and the appalling intellectual dishonesty and immoral self-interest that has become a contagion, especially among those entrusted to act as the interpreters and caretakers of law in this country.

The Truth is that after eight long years of war on our own soil, the American Militia was as exhausted as the British forces with which they contended. Britain stood at the beginning of the Industrial Revolution. It's factories were starved for American lumber, American cotton, American flax, wool, tobacco, and other cash crops, while the Americans were starved for hard currency, peace, and access to ready markets for their raw materials.

The Americans had no Navy to speak of, only a commercial merchant fleet that was easy prey on the High Seas. The British had the best Navy in the world. In view of their mutual needs and the circumstance in which we found ourselves, the King and the Founders reached an agreement that protected our commercial fleet and restored our economy while feeding the hungry British factories with American raw materials. It's called The Constitution for the united States of America. This one document serves as a tri-lateral multi-national treaty, a commercial services contract, and an international trust indenture all rolled into one.

Unlike the deceptively and similarly named Constitution of the United States of America issued in 1868, the actual Constitution is not a mere corporate charter.

Similar to the unknown judge mistaking the meaning of the word "people" within the context of the times when the actual Constitution was written, we have been bamboozled by our own ignorance to mistake the nature and meaning of the Constitution and the meaning and power still vested in it. We have even forgotten who we are -- living people born with a natural allegiance to the organic states that gave us life: Virginians, New Yorkers, Marylanders, Ohioans, Georgians, New Mexicans, Californians....Texans, Montanans, Utahans, Oregonians....

I've had a chance this past week to open the mail flooding our post office boxes from all over this country. I've read the heart-felt letters and collected the donations for our ongoing work with The Living Law Firm and the many Acts of Expatriation reaffirming the true allegiance of Americans to their nation-states. I've had the opportunity to think deeply about each and every one of the states joined together under The Articles of Incorporation in perpetual union, each one unique, and each one beloved.

What we have is far too precious and too dearly won to give up or give over to sophistry and evil men. Each one of us is called to be a Son or a Daughter of the Revolution. We must never forget that, nor disrespect our honorable duty as members of the People and that means--- members of the Militia.

For men and women to be free and to be safe, they must be and remain forever armed---armed with weapons of the spirit and the mind as well as the body.

As we celebrate the 240th Anniversary of The Declaration of Independence let us remember that it isn't about words written on a page, but words written on our hearts. It isn't about fireworks and parades and victories long ago. It's about the battles being fought every day, here and now, in courtrooms and political arenas around the world. It's about Americans standing together, all for one and one for all, as true Sons and Daughters of the Revolution that still rages on.

The Fifth of July

Two hundred and forty-one years ago, if the history books are to be believed about anything, the original organizers of the government of this country were hard at work in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. It was overcast and the dank, damp air rising from the squalid city streets combined with the heat of summer made John Adams describe the atmosphere as "fetid". The unanimous vote of the men representing the original thirteen Colonies in favor of The Declaration of Independence had -- despite everything standing against it--- passed. It was a shock, even to them.

How had it happened? Nobody was quite sure. Everyone had, for one reason or another, bet against it. The South would never agree to that, and the North would never agree to another bit; Massachusetts would fight to the bitter end and so would South Carolina. Nobody expected The Declaration to be accepted, and especially not after John Dickinson of Pennsylvania, a Tory and one of the great orators of his day, succeeded in requiring that the vote on The Declaration be unanimous.

Even its most avid supporters sucked in their breath and gave The Declaration of Independence a wink and a prayer.

My ancestors, lawyers who were neighbors of John Adams from Braintree, Massachusetts, preachers and tradesmen from Boston, and gentlemen farmers from Connecticut, were already with George Washington's forces, fully engaged in fighting off the British Redcoats and their mercenaries. Three hundred miles away, they wouldn't hear the news from Philadelphia for a week or more.

As the shock waves of the unanimous vote died slowly away, the members of the Continental Congress began to wake up to the new realities of July 5th, 1776. There was no longer any grey uncertainty about it. They were at war and fully committed to it, do or die. There had to be a certain amount of grim relief in it. After ten years and more of wobbling back and forth, it was finally decided.

One is reminded of that moment when, having struggled with a terrible disease for a long time, the doctor finally delivers a diagnosis. Suddenly, the problem solidifies, takes on a name, dimensions, and a known character.

So it is, that we, too, have come awake and begun the process of dealing with the consequences of our decisions. Like our Forefathers, we face the razor-edge of supporting The Declaration of Independence with "our lives, our fortunes, and or sacred honor" --- or not, in our own country.

Throughout the world, people have looked to America as a beacon of hope, as the only nation to stand up for the Natural and Unalienable Rights of Mankind. Yet, progressively, for the past one hundred and fifty years of our history, we have been slowly undermined by those same foreign and mostly European powers that our ancestors fought for eight long years.

Above and beyond any armies, we have had to contend with deceit and Breach of Trust from men and principalities formally committed to serve as our Trustees and as purveyors of "essential government services" working under commercial contract. These same proponents of Commercial Feudalism have sought to secretly undermine our lawful government since 1822, while pretending to be our friends and Allies.

Just as secretively, they have used their pawns in the Bar Associations to enslave the living people of the world via the use of similar names deceptions and a universal practice of the crimes of personage and barratry.

They have kept us constantly embroiled in war after conflict after war throughout our history, never letting us rest or enjoy the fruits of our labor. Always, England has served as the excuse for this, and the Papacy has stood by without the least regard for its Trustee responsibilities, and let it all happen. It comes as a great surprise to most Americans to know that they have a peacetime flag, the red-white-and-blue with vertical stripes; because they have been kept at constant war by these perpetrators, they only know the wartime flag, the "Stars and Stripes".

It also comes as a great surprise to most Americans to realize that the actual government of this country is still centered in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and that the "U.S. Government" in Washington, DC, is --- and has always been -- a foreign entity perched on our shores, tasked with providing nineteen enumerated services on a for-hire basis.

And no doubt, it comes as a great surprise that America has a hereditary Head of State, when in fact we had all hoped to leave such feudalistic practices behind in a distant and unpleasant past.

Like my ancestors in the battles of the Potomac and Bunker Hill and White Plains and Ticonderoga, I am devoted to the principles of freedom and individual sovereignty. Like them, I find it repugnant that any man should rule over another.

I regard self-rule as the ultimate goal--- that we should each know and rule ourselves according to our own conscience, and choose such godly principles that any interference of government in our lives is rendered totally unnecessary.

All that said, the corruption in Washington, DC, had reached such a fever-pitch and the personage and barratry being practiced in our courts was creating such destruction, that something had to be done. I, despite my misgivings, had to exercise the hereditary office as American Head of State, to bring correction and restoration.

Do not be deceived by any new corporation taking over the reins in Washington, DC., and proclaiming themselves some kind of "republic". A corporation is incapable of being a republic by definition.

Only you and your neighbors joining together and learning to operate your own government are capable of forming and preserving the republican state governments you are owed. The actual states are named simply, like this: Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas.... The unincorporated businesses charged with conducting the affairs of the actual states are named like this: Alabama State, Alaska State, Arizona State, Arkansas State.....

All these organizations that you see operating as "States of States" like State of Washington and State of Louisiana are merely franchises of the Territorial federal government. All the "STATES OF STATES" like the STATE OF WISCONSIN and STATE OF IDAHO are similarly franchises of the Municipal federal government, and strictly speaking, shouldn't even be on our soil.

A great deal of self-interested pillaging and plundering has taken place in America as a result of the mismanagement and dishonesty of both the Territorial and Municipal Governments. The Congress in presiding over both these foreign governments has proven both incompetent and disloyal to their true duty to the American states and people.

Beginning in 2007 and continuing more or less unabated through 2015, a Master Plan was put in motion by corrupt mostly foreign banking interests to pull off a reprise of the Great Fraud practiced upon us by Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

On that occasion, similar names deceits mischaracterizing the Trade Names of American landmen as Foreign Situs Trusts belonging to the bankrupt United States of America, Incorporated, were used to set up a process of debt assumption, by which millions of innocent Americans and their assets were "presumed" to be franchises of the failed corporation and collateral for its debts.

Three generations of Americans have toiled as debt slaves and given up large percentages of our private earnings to pay off the debts of this foreign, mostly privately owned governmental services corporation merely calling itself the "United States of America"----Incorporated. It was finally released from bankruptcy November 7, 1999.

This was the greatest hoax and con game in world history up until that time, and we, Americans, were the Fall Guys. This was set up, administered, and executed by the British Government and British Crown, both obligated by solemn treaty to act as our Trustees on "the High Seas and Navigable Inland Waterways" ---which is precisely the jurisdiction where this travesty occurred--- and also obligated to act with "perpetual friendship and amity".

The most recent plan to feed upon us was even worse. The perpetrators -- the Municipal Government --- doing business as the "UNITED STATES", intended to spend itself into oblivion, declare bankruptcy, and saddle Americans with its debts for the next five hundred years. Worse, they intended to foreclose on our ESTATES and make false claims on abandonment, allowing their own Secondary Creditors to come in and seize our lands and homes and conscript us to forced labor---- again, to pay their private debts.

Think of it as FDR on methylethyl amphetamines, a juggernaut of planned deceits, secretive bankruptcy proceedings, and legalistic mumbo-jumbo designed to put a gloss --- literally, "an appearance" --- of judicial process on these flagrantly unlawful acts of international inland piracy.

To put frosting on this cake of infamy and betrayal of trust, Barack Hussein Obama not only bankrupted the UNITED STATES, as planned, he also bankrupted the USA, INC., leaving no federal corporation in charge of providing the stipulated nineteen enumerated services due. This, in effect, vacated the actual Constitution, as there was no longer a competent "federal partner" available to perform the duties.

Instead, bankruptcy trustees named by the Secondary Creditors--- international banks--- would be appointed by default to administer things however they saw fit.

Against this backdrop, in November of 2015, we took action to fill the gap and forestall this outcome. Acting as Head of State for the unincorporated (actual) United States of America, I contracted with the Native nations of the Athabascans and Lakota Sioux, to become the new federal service providers.

As a precaution, I also issued new Sovereign Letters Patent, and we also issued a Joint Declaration of Sovereignty with our new federal partners, upholding The Declaration of Independence and expanding it to include all Americans.

We are set upon a path to correct the errors of the past and clean up the disgusting mess in Washington, DC. Please spread the word to all Americans everywhere on Earth.

We waited until the last minute, hoping that the Queen and the British Crown and the Pope and all those others responsible for this Mess would do the right thing and take corrective action, but on June 29, 2017, we entered our claim to restore all land and land assets to the American states and people they naturally belong to. We gave the rats three days Notice, which is all we owed them, in consideration of the extensive efforts made to give sufficient International Notice for the past ten years.

When they bankrupted the UNITED STATES, they also bankrupted all its franchises--- including the UNITED KINGDOM, ELIZABETH II, FRANCISCUS, FRANCE, STATE OF UTAH, and JOHN QUINCY DOE. All the land assets and monetary assets attached to these Cestui Que Vie Trusts were supposed to be a giant worldwide Slush Fund. The perpetrators would simply change their doing business names, make claims on abandonment, and inherit it all.

All the "little people" thus defrauded would be reduced to a condition of eternal slavery and statelessness, adrift forever, and eternally press-ganged into the service of Her Majesty's Royal Navy and British Crown Merchant Marine Service.

What they couldn't take by force, they fully intended to take by fraud and deceit, bogus bankruptcy actions and equally bogus probate processes. There was just one thing standing in the way of this multi-generational fraud: the American people. The Americans are the actual Paramount Security Interest Holders and Priority Creditors of the UNITED STATES and all its various franchises.

The plot to take over the entire world and enter it into a new era of enslavement and Commercial Feudalism---- a New Dark Ages---- could only succeed as long as the Americans failed to come forward and claim their due. And how could they come forward? They had all been carefully stripped of standing, insurance, equitable title....

We overcame all that and on June 29, 2017-- we claimed our rights as the Paramount Security Interest Holders of the UNITED STATES. That makes us the Paramount Security Interest Holders in all the various franchises and rolls over the title to FRANCE, the UNITED KINGDOM, and so much else to our control.

Today, the Fourth of July [2017], it is my great pleasure to declare that the forces of darkness, deceit, and evil in our midst have been defeated. A new day of freedom and abundance for all Mankind is dawning.

We will not turn back from the Great Work that our hands are set to. Washington, DC will be cleaned up and cleaned out. Restoration of the government that the people are owed will sweep across this country from one end to the other, with your help. Here and throughout the world, there will be peace and kindness and plenty for all.

This Fourth of July is the true beginning of a new world. I invite you all to do your best to understand these changes, why they are happening, and to thank Almighty God, the Creator of Our Blessings, for His kindness to us and His steadfast care and wisdom, which has allowed the meek to triumph and literally inherit the Earth.

Tomorrow, is the Fifth of July [2017] --- the first day forward for us all. I invite you all to search your souls and join us in flying the Peacetime Flag, known as the U.S. Civil Flag --- from now on. This version of the red-white-and blue has vertical stripes and a white corner panel with blue stars. It is your flag every bit as much as the Stars and Stripes. Fly it proudly and happily as your sign and symbol that peace has finally come, not only to our nation, but to the world. These flags are available, together with their history at:

Veterans--- I want you to know that I am a Son of the Revolution. My family has been here and fought in every skirmish since 1609. I am a United States Air Force veteran, honorably discharged, and a Lifetime member of the AmVets. Just because I declare the peace does not mean that I fail to understand war. I am 100% behind our veterans, guaranteeing their pensions, benefits owed, and even expanding those services that have not been provided before.

This is a new America, an America at peace--- but that peace has only been made possible by men of war and the grace of God.

I AM YOUR ANCHOR BABY

By Anna Von Reitz, Fiduciary for The United States of America

Anna Von Reitz
 Researcher, Historian,
 Justice and Fiduciary for The United States of America,
 Unincorporated

“The Irrevocable Will is such a piece of paper. It clearly states in legalese that I claimed it all, and that I give it all back to the true beneficiaries — your states and yourselves.”

When a foreign woman gives birth on United States soil, her baby becomes a State Citizen — an American. As a result, the whole family is allowed to immigrate here.

A similar principle is at work regarding your claim to your private property and your organic state’s resources. Think now about the process of extracting your toe from under a chair...is it possible to extract your toe, without also extracting your foot, ankle, leg...are you not all connected?

It is the same with all of us — Americans are all connected. We are all “organic states” of the Union, part of the furniture, part of each other, all guaranteed equal protection under the law. So when I filed my timely UCC-1 claim and extracted “my” ESTATE trust doing business as “ANNA MARIA RIEZINGER” out of the final bankruptcy settlement of the United States of America, Inc. — I was your anchor baby.

One American ESTATE was reclaimed, and all American ESTATES are owed the same.

Similarly, when I went through the whole process of claiming back my life, filing a blood seal with the Vatican, filing the whole pile of claims against all the names attributed to me, the Security Agreement, Indemnity Bond, and so on — my actions included you. Me, the toe, is attached to you, the foot, the ankle, the leg...

Then when I filed against the UNITED NATIONS and the IMF in behalf of the States of America and in behalf of my living self, it remained for me to define in the document what “states” of America I was talking about and which version of “me” — was secured party.

Once again, where the toe goes, the foot goes. The claims against the UN and IMF are in behalf of the organic states, not any corporate versions or franchises. All that remained was for me to give up any unique claim and distribute the claimed assets via an Irrevocable Will. So I did that, too. And here is a copy.

[Anna’s Will :
<https://annavonreitz.com/annaswill.pdf>]

Because one American did it, we all did it. Because one American reclaimed her ESTATE, all Americans are owed equal treatment. And the rats cannot claim “statute of limitations” or “final settlement” or “untimely filing” or anything like that, because there is no statute of limitations on fraud, and we have all uniformly been defrauded.

Via my single action, I claimed everything back for everyone — the land belonging to every state, the private property belonging every living man, woman, and child — each organic state and each living individual American State Citizen has a claim-in-common with me.

I AM YOUR ANCHOR BABY.

You were defrauded as I was. What I am owed, you are owed. And just in case there was any wiggle room to interpret my actions any other way, I have issued the Irrevocable Will making it perfectly clear that I claimed the land back for the real States of America and the private property for the individual people it belongs to — including me.

The Irrevocable Will contains all the reference numbers to the underlying UCC documents filed in Alaska. Just like you didn’t know these ugly claims were being made against you and your ESTATE assets, you didn’t know someone else was busily counter-claiming in your behalf. Now you know. We are about to set sail on ships made of paper. The Irrevocable Will is such a piece of paper. It clearly states in legalese that I claimed it all, and that I give it all back to the true beneficiaries — your states and yourselves.

Make use of this gift and God bless.

Hereditary Donor and Fiduciary

How did I become the Fiduciary?

By doing the work of the Fiduciary Office. I, as a Fiduciary, have very plainly stated functions, one of which is to protect and preserve the assets of all the States.

I have placed liens on trillions of dollars worth of assets which counts as “securing” these assets.

No, not Lloyd’s. Not Barclays. Me, in the plaid shirt and sneakers, Grandma, down on the farm.

I am the Fiduciary for The United States of America, our unincorporated Federation of States. We, our States and our People, underwrite and hold the Public Interest in all business enterprises and public infrastructure and public bonds associated with this country. We hold the ultimate right of redemption. Consider it exercised.

I am also, by default, the Fiduciary for all the people in this country and the Holder in Due Course of their reclaimed estates and reversionary trust interests. I am uniquely empowered and pre-eminent in both space and time to act as the Priority Preferential Creditor and that means I am the Underwriter and Undertaker for the Kingdom of the Dead.

Nothing much more needs to be said. If it's American in source or provenance, if it belongs to anyone claiming American nationality, then I own and safe-keep and underwrite it all until the lawful living owners appear and reclaim their assets and resume the lawful administration of their own affairs.

My position as Fiduciary is Custodial and Cooperative. I am empowered to direct the flow of actual capital assets underwriting the banks of this country and throughout the world, and have recently relieved the Australian debt crisis and ordered the production of gold Eagle coinage from the United States Mint. These are both actions that were long delayed without any valid reason by persons standing in conflict of interest.

Various incorporated entities claiming to be "The United States of America, Incorporated" — all of which ultimately owe their underwriting to me, have sought to interfere and intercede and push themselves forward as our purported "representatives" but as everyone can now see, we are competent and have the standing necessary to present ourselves.

As Fiduciary, I exercise the bonds and act as the Entitlement Holder in Due Course and own a preponderant share of all bank stock and actual assets. The United States of America — Unincorporated — has held its preeminent position on the international jurisdiction of the land granted to this country since 1778, and it continues to be present and accounted for to the current hour.

In response to the various Claims on Abandonment presented by the Guilty Parties, we ask — what possible benefit would we realize from being defrauded by our own Employees and Subcontractors? How would that "motive" compare to the benefit yielded to the banks and other Foreign Principals, who would gain the benefit of our property and assets? And our credit derived from those assets?

There can be no credible objection to our Claim on Abatement, our Disbursement of the National Debts, our Majority Stockholder Position, our Administration of our own Assets, or our Intent to return to a traditional and transparent — howbeit, technologically updated banking system that resolves any fraudulent pretense of enmity between the realms of Commerce and International Trade.

Having discovered the Gross Fraud and Breach of Trust practiced against us and against our beloved country, we have served more than sufficient Notice of Avoidance and completed and cured Due Process to vitiate all claims and proposals coming from any incorporated entity whatsoever.

In October 2007, I brought our objections and research directly to the Pope, Benedict XVI.

Why? Because he (and his Successors) are in charge of the Civil Government in this country (not civilian, civil) and as anyone can observe now— thanks largely to me— both the Territorial and Municipal (Civil) Governments are functioning in gross Breach of Trust.

It does no good in a compartmentalized hierarchy to attack low level employees; they can do nothing to change anything. So realizing that the problem with our civil government administration at the federal level was within the Pontificate and its administration, I went straight to the top, because lower authorities would only defer to the Pope.

He heard me out. He was stunned. His answer was, and I quote, "Nobody told me!"

So the Office of Evil was such that even the purported head of the organization wasn't told what was going on.

I was in the midst of giving Notice to his employees and cohorts in the Church concerning the Great Fraud. Benedict asked me to add his authority to that Notice process, as the ultimate employer of the civil (municipal) government.

He asked me to do this for him so that the weight of his office would tell the employees to reform and not just ignore the Notice.

This was an unpaid mission that I was engaged in anyway and his reasoning made sense, so that is what we did.

That Notice process took seven (7) years between October 2007 and April of 2014. In that time period, about 10,000 pieces of mail went out of my home office at my own expense, informing members of the Municipal Governments worldwide, and the Territorial Governments, too.

When Benedict XVI left office in 2013, I had a few months left to do. Francis did not end the Notice process, nor change the arrangement, so it continued on to its logical end in 2014.

The Final Judgment was issued in April 2014 and is published in my book, Disclosure 101.

A great deal of work has gone into giving every Territorial and Municipal organization on Earth a shot at doing the right thing, or at least not doing the wrong thing.

All these Notices went out via "Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal; Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent", so we may assume that far more than 10,000 people worldwide were made aware of the Breach of Trust and criminal mismanagement ongoing in this country and many other countries around the world.

"It does no good in a compartmentalized hierarchy to attack low level employees; they can do nothing to change anything."

Testament of Anna Maria Riezinger: Born June 6, 1956

I am still alive, by the Grace and Glory of God, this day in October in the year called 2017, and yet, realistically, I must take steps to prepare for death and the likelihood that I and my husband and perhaps many other innocent members of the Belle Chers will fall in the line of duty. As I said in the beginning, we are Shepherds sent to guard the flock; we fight with wolves and lions.

One of the most frustrating things about the condition of death is that you can no longer be heard by the living. You can stand right next to them and shout as loud as you like, and they will just go on eating or typing or whatever else they are doing, totally oblivious.

So to save myself that frustration later I am giving my messages now.

First, and foremost, I love you all. All. Even the Bad Actors. Our Father has purposed that all will be saved and not one left behind. Remember that. Not one. Remember this, too— that love is the most important thing you can give, and I give it freely to each and every one of you reading this today.

Second, Jim and I have done our duty by you. Nobody can say that we failed to report or didn't sound the alarm or didn't make speed or didn't do everything that we possibly could do to restore order and justice once we knew for sure what was going on. At every step, like good soldiers, we have reported back to you all and acted to protect and preserve your lives and property. We shall continue to do so until our last drop is shed.

Third, this Earth and its people are worth living for and worth dying for. If we are murdered for loving this country and its people, we have no regrets. Let our blood cry out to Our Father and may He bring them to ruin who have sought to enslave those He created as Free Men.

Fourth, don't get hung up on the past and don't wait for or expect kings to lead you. Such kings exist and they will come forward, even as Jim has, but they are simply acting "for" you and the real point is that you become the kings and queens of your own lives. So long as you love justice and mercy and truth, you are kings and queens, and as you live in this moment called "Now" in which both alpha and omega meet, choose this as your time to be and act, to undo the miseries of the past and let them go, to enjoy the day given you as a gift, and to choose a future of peace and joy for all Creation.

There are Eight Trusts bequeathed to you in this country. They are:

Genesis 1:26-28

The Twenty-Third Psalm -- pay attention to that line, "I shall not want."

The Lord's Prayer

1620 Mayflower Compact

The Unanimous Declaration of Independence

The Gettysburg Address

The New Deal

The Declaration of Flag

The New Deal was a False Trust, a trust engineered to steal everything from you, and The Declaration of Flag has now returned everything to you. Hold fast to it, and try to uphold the peace that it also declares.

Fifth, the Belle Chers have stood for many centuries as the authors of justice at arms and mercy in peace. It was from their lips that you heard for the first time that "might must be employed for right" -- and it was from their hands that the Magna Carta sprang. Now, then, let every good and honorable man come forward and embrace these principles and be accounted my son, and let every woman of courage and sound mind be my daughter. Say with me that each one of us is sacred and each one of us is free.

Sixth, the Ancient Romans said that courage is the first virtue, and they spoke rightly, for without courage no other virtue can be guaranteed; that said, mercy is greater than the courage that earns its exercise. This world is by its nature deceptive. Things are not what they seem. The one who seems subordinate is often the greater, and the student is often the teacher, and the poor are among us so that we may have the opportunity to give and the guilty are here so that we may learn the benefits of mercy. Look deeply and hone your mind to penetrate these secrets, so that you might know the truth and pass it on, even as I have.

Seventh, perhaps, when we--- my husband and I--- are gone, and the members of our table are again scattered, you will feel the loss and remember when we were among you and you will think: what am I to do? Where am I to go? Who am I to trust? It is at that moment that you must look deep within your heart and go outside and reconnect to the One Life that is our life and yours. Do not be deceived and think that we are ever far from you; indeed, we shall come to you with the swiftness of thought, even as Yeshuah is with you, so His Servants are, in spirit and in flesh. As He is with you always, so are we. So whenever you feel you need it, just pause and think of us. Feel the warm though unseen hug. You are not alone and never will be.

Eighth, know that I will miss being able to speak with you directly, but listen carefully to the quiet voice within, to the birches singing on the wind, to the odd coincidences and the things that bring you some thought or memory of us. As Yeshuah asked you to remember Him whenever you break bread and drink wine (and not as some would say only in a church and only according to the rules they set up as a boundary) please think of us, His Servants, when you see a friendly dog, faithful and watchful to the end.

Ninth, as I leave this world, I will be handing a torch on to you, a torch that was lit by Our Father long ago, a perpetual burning fire that burns in our hearts. Let His Holy Spirit come to you and teach you. Let His Grace and Mercy melt your hardness of heart. Let all fear flee before you. Let His Glory be incarnate in you.

Tenth, I here record my Confession of many, many, many grievous sins and errors, many down-fallings, many failures. I have no special, unusual, or particular excuses. I have been as other women in all respects, and have committed by my count, one way or another, every sin. Yet I rely firmly on the love and the grace and the kindness of Him that sent me, and know that He has already fore-given me. To all those who try and all those who fail to live a righteous life, take heart. We are not here to triumph. We are here to be limited and to learn and to fail, to be humbled--- and I certainly have been.

Eleventh, as Solomon has written, to everything there is a season. In this world we have our beginning, our middle, and our end, but just beyond the veil of this life, eternity stretches out in limitlessness, and Our Father remembers each one of us in the finest detail. We can never be lost, never cease to exist, never be destroyed in any true sense. Our bodies are like space suits that wear out, but our eternal being is safe from the ravages of age and disease and deception, thus remember the secret of Isaiah 57. We return to rest, and that is no cause for sadness.

Twelve--- as for my worldly goods, let my name be found inscribed in the Book of Life known as The New Testament, which is the Ninth, and most personal trust I leave to you, whatever your religious beliefs may be. Let my houses -- and those other baubles that have belonged to me for a time, let them pass on to my son, Eric, and my husband, James Clinton, and my Executive Officer, Harold Heinze, according to our agreements, and to my beloved Sister, Em, and such other family and friends as I have left remembrance to.

To all the people of the world I leave the Truth of their Divinity and their Mission to merit the gifts they have been given freely by Our Father, the One Life that exists in this One Time called Now, where all that ever was meets with all that ever will be.

So it is said and done this 20th day of October 2017 while I am well in mind and body and competent to give this Testament.

Visionary Dynamo!

By Nikki Isaacs, Senior Editor

Louise Campbell-Anthony is a rare individual and an exceptionally talented woman. Her wisdom, gleaned through many robust experiences, is matched only by her remarkable resilience. Today, Louise is creating a new life as an American State National. She is nearly an empty nester after raising ten children with her now ex-husband, Mark. It would seem that stepping into the role of a political activist from a mom of ten might be daunting. Not for Louise Anthony. Nor is activism a new role.

It is no surprise that Louise, an energetic and bubbly woman with an infectious enthusiasm for life and liberty, has become a trailblazer. As a mother of ten, organizational skills were paramount to keeping abreast of her children while instilling American family values amid a corrupt world. The family lived a farm-to-table lifestyle, which she reports missing while fondly reminiscing from an urban apartment. With keen insight, Louise recalls that in 2003 there was a supposed SARS epidemic scare. She credits the lack of awareness of any SARS cases in her community to the fact that mere propaganda was being spread in the news media which locals were too busy working in the fields than to be listening to that media. She's convinced that the COVID pandemic scare had the same elements of media propaganda and no substantiated facts to claim a pandemic.

Louise's love for the land, a peaceful backdrop to her life, became the focus of her fight when these fertile lands, important to many, were threatened. Illinois Governor George Ryan's proposal to take a large swath of land from her community for a 1,800-bed women's prison was met with fierce opposition by grassroots activism. The victory of Pembroke Advocates for Truth, an activist group in which she was one of the leaders against Governor Ryan's proposal which led to the scrapping of the 1,800-bed prison development and followed by his imprisonment being found guilty of fraud and racketeering during his government tenure, is a testament to her determination and influence.

After graduating from Oral Roberts University with a Bachelor's degree in Christian Ministries Evangelism, Louise learned from her self-studies while serving as a pastoral elder of her community church about humanity's betrayal by the Church in concealing the true Church's history. She eventually resolved to change directions and fall back on her minor in Computer Science. Learning of the betrayal by the Church, she describes, was equally as painful as learning about the criminality of government leaders. She had a profound experience when the veil of deception was lifted about America's hidden history. She found inspiration in the teachings of Anna Von Reitz and declared her political status as an American State National in 2022. Her vision of a national program, The American Government's Resurgence Project, is a testament to her forward-thinking and innovative approach, as she leveraged her pain into productive inspiration. Louise's passion, determination, and courage are skillsets that were not new to her. Louise pitched the project to Anna, and the proposal became a shared vision and collaboration.

A group of American State Nationals have organized an International Outreach Think Tank to mobilize in a collective effort as all quadrants of our united States are moving forward to restore our lawful self-governments.

Let's peek at a summary of Louise's national project, "The American Government's Resurgence" Project, which is now under development and projected to launch in the Spring of 2025.

This International Public Notice is to inform you that the foreign federal Subcontractors, the United States government services corporations, have unlawfully and criminally converted your political status from that of an American to that of a foreign citizen. They have substituted their corporations for your lawful American Government for 160 years. In so doing, they stole your identity, your credit, your gold and your land assets.

We, the Federation of States d.b.a. The United States of America, Unincorporated, your lawful American Government established in 1776 and restored in 2017, are suing them for Breach of Trust, Breach of Contract and Fraud to recover these assets on behalf of the American people.

The American Government's Resurgence Project

By Nikki Isaacs, Senior Editor and Louise Campbell-Anthony, Project Developer

“The goal is to help rescue Americans from the air and sea jurisdictions by directing them to correct their political status to the land and soil jurisdictions as intended by our Founders.”

The American Government's Resurgence Project (The Resurgence Project) is a 6-Phase grassroots, Nationwide Outreach Project of which the mission is to restore the Sovereign Governance of America --- of the people, by the people and for the people --- in commitment to our founding document, The Unanimous Declaration of Independence of 1776.

This Special Edition Newsletter provides a brief overview of Louise's project objectives, highlighting the first three phases of this national plan. At the end of this article is a link to a Zoom meeting where Louise presents all six (6) of the project's phases. The goal is to help rescue Americans from the air and sea jurisdictions by directing them to correct their political status to the land and soil jurisdictions as intended by our Founders.

Project Objectives

1. “Go Public” as The Federation of States of “50-in-full-force,” (a slogan I coined for this project to capture the sentiment of my end resolve), and take our place on the world stage as the rightful, sovereign American Government.
2. Rescue every American from sea and air jurisdictions and bring them back home to the land and soil jurisdictions by placing their Declarations of Political Status on the public record while educating them along the way.
3. Demand the capitulation of our Territorial and Municipal United States Government Subcontractors to transfer the governance of America back into the control of the Sovereign American Government in full recognition as their Employers.
4. Recoup the skilled American workforce or manpower to run our American government services for the people with competence and retrain them according to the Public Law.
5. Allocate office space in our public government buildings, initially our State Capitol buildings and Court houses, from which to run our American government services.
6. Require performance on a wide, one-fail-swoop list of demands from the United States Territorial and Municipal government officials to align their de facto governance with their respective contracted services as agreed and to implement those “legal” remedies as stipulated in their Statutes and Codes used to legalize their crimes. This will quickly give the people remedy in masse.
7. Keep the Territorial and Municipal United States Government Subcontractors in place and require them to continue to provide services with zero-sum transactions, or they pay the expenses out of their own coffers, not ours, until and unless they peacefully transfer America's governance back into the hands of Americans.
8. Lawfully end the revolving door of criminal bankruptcy fraud and commercial fraud of corporations on our land and soil via our special concurrent General Jurisdiction over all LAW capacity.
9. Convene a Continental Congress to review the Constitutions, i.e., Explore termination or renegotiation and decide on new protocols involving the election of “The” President of “The” United States of America and/or appointing a Head of State successor.

Project Participants

American State Nationals — Status-corrected Nationals who volunteer to put this project into motion. Volunteers come from every State and do not represent their local Assemblies in any official capacity while serving in the Think Tank. It is a fluid system with no specific time commitment required. It is expected that you simply follow through with any commitments made.

Nationwide Outreach Think Tank — The Nationwide Outreach group, consisting of declared Nationals, is working to bring Americans home to the land and soil. This group is a non-governmental organization of “loosely” organized American State nationals to assist in putting the project into motion and help to seat each State Assembly in an organized way.

Federation of States Peacekeeping Task Force (PKTF) — A Federation of States d.b.a. The United States of America, Unincorporated (1776) instrumentality that provides peacekeeping services to the 50 State Assemblies and participating countries. The PKTF agreed to be the official umbrella over the Project if Louise would direct the project as the Affiliate Director.

American State Assemblies — The 50 American State Assemblies of The Federation of States d.b.a. The United States of America, Unincorporated (1776).

American County Assemblies — Each county in every state needs to be reorganized and fill government positions within the soil jurisdiction. This will congeal the newly organized State assemblies.

Strategy Task Force — This Task Force will consist of any volunteers experienced in military operations, strategizing, grassroots organizing, and community activism formed to analyze this project’s results, investigating possible alternative strategies, and solving the issue of our American Government not being recognized by the de facto. Those with experience in these areas are invited to join.

Project Phases

The Resurgence Project currently consists of these 6 Phases. However, they are subject to change, as the project is being launched in phases only after each phase is fully developed:

- Phase 1 — “International Public Notice” Campaign
- Phase 2 — “Our Commitment” County Tours

- Phase 3 — “Transference of Government” Strategic Plan
- Phase 4 — The1776Union.tv WebTV Platform
- Phase 5 — The1776Union.com News blog website
- Phase 6 — America’s Resurgence 2028 (After 160 years!) 3-day Event

Think Tank Task Teams

The overarching goal of this project is to rescue every American from sea and air jurisdictions and bring them back home to the land and soil jurisdictions. We educate Americans about their political status and how to record their corrected status onto the public record.

Each Think Tank Task Team will be tasked with assisting the State Assemblies in implementing each of the 6 Phases of this project. Task Teams 1-5 described, in part, below will assist with Phases 1 and 2. Task Teams 6-13 as outlined in The Resurgence Project’s Implementation Guide for the Think Tank, will assist in implementing Phases 3-6. The PKTF Affiliate Director is forming a Strategy Task Force to assess the progress and effectiveness of The Resurgence Project regularly.

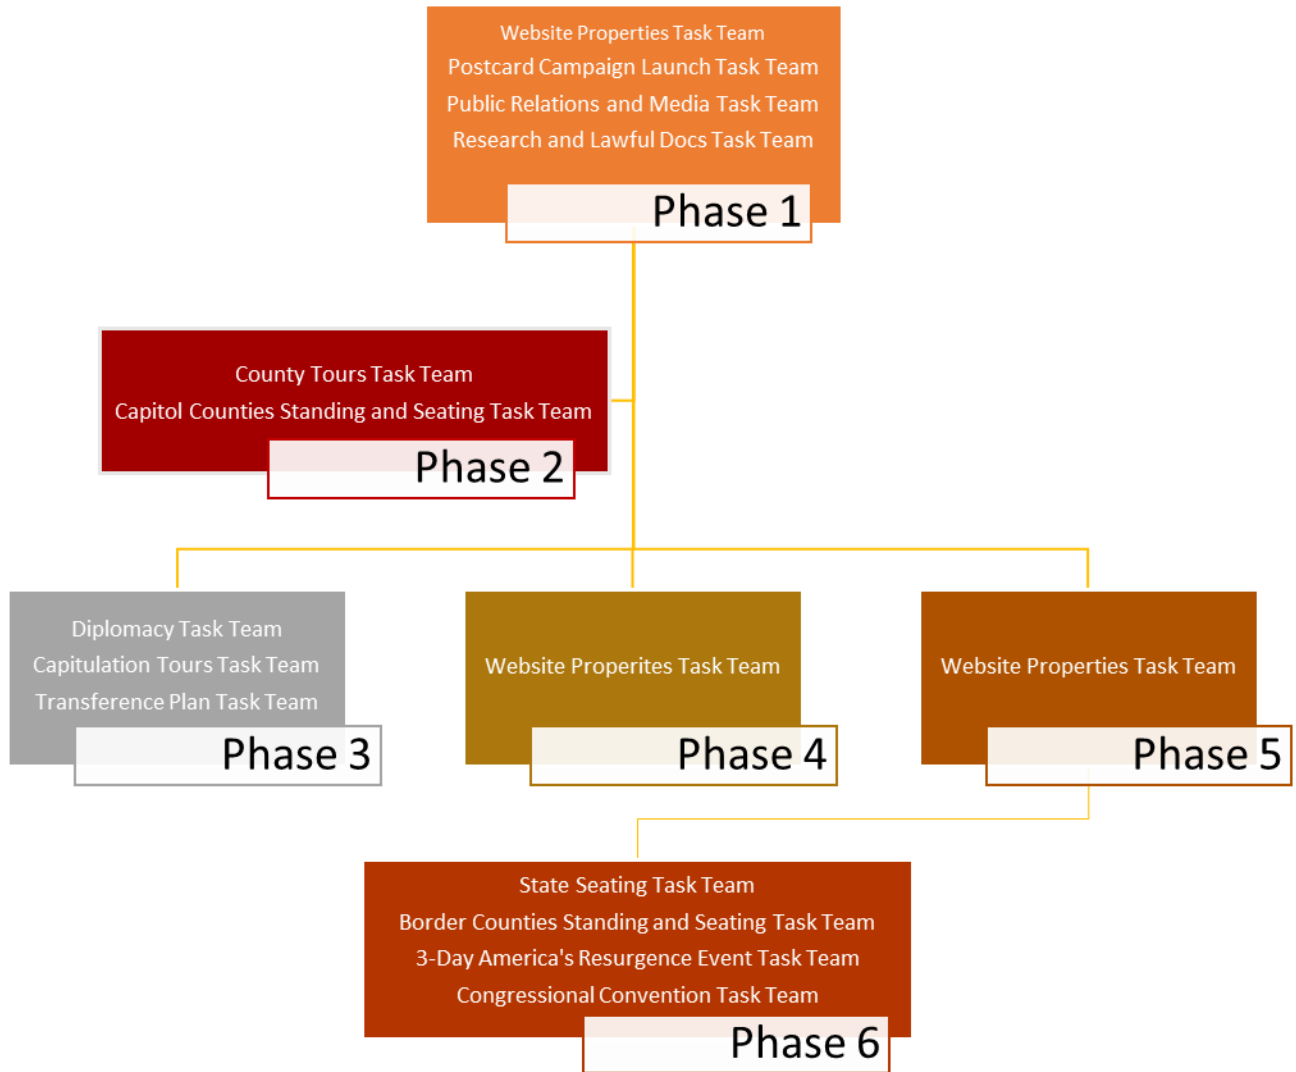

Tasks Teams Needed:

Website Properties Task Team — This Team will focus on developing and designing 5 websites: claimyourinheritance.info, the1776union.tv, the1776union.com, the American State Nationals

“The PKTF Affiliate Director is forming a Strategy Task Force to assess the progress and effectiveness of The Resurgence Project regularly.”

The American Government's Resurgence Project (cont'd)

Volunteers Needed!

University (ASNU) platform, and the Shop platform.

“International Public Notice” Campaign Launch Task Team — This Team will prepare materials for each 50 States with all necessary components to run a successful Phase 1. See the launch video on page 17 for details, including budget, suppliers, etc.

Public Relations and Media Task Team — This Team will focus on getting us in the News—TV, radio, press releases, social media channels, newspapers, interviews, public speaking engagements, etc. These appearances can be scheduled for Federation, State, or County Assembly officials or Committee Chair(wo)men.

County Tours Task Team — This Team will focus on preparing materials for each of the 50 States with all necessary components to run a successful Phase 2: “Our Commitment to The Declaration of Independence” County Tour public meetings, with the intention to rescue every American from sea and air jurisdictions and bring them back home to the land and soil jurisdictions.

State Capitol Counties Standing and Seating Task Team — This Team will focus on standing and seating the County where the State Capitol is located. This will be accomplished collaboratively with multiple teams.

Phases 1 and 2 are currently in the Pre-Launch stage awaiting the final edits and approval from our Fiduciary, Anna Maria Reizinger.

Phase 1 — “International Public Notice” Campaign

The purpose of this “International Public Notice” campaign is for our American Government to give official notice to the Public of our adjudication of the crimes against the American people and the Federation’s recovery of our assets that each man and woman now need to claim individually by correcting our political status. This serves as the official introduction of ourselves to the Public as their newly restored American government in action via our official lawful channel, the post office by way of a postcard, although all possible channels will be utilized to include email, radio, newspaper, community canvassing and social media.

Phase 2 — “Our Commitment to The Declaration of Independence” County Tours

The purpose of the County Tours is to be a follow-through event to the International Public Notice campaigns. These Tours combine our energies and focus on populating our State and County Assemblies in a strategic and consistent way. By having a Tour of public events scheduled across our State, the Public will see their newly restored American Government in action in their own communities. They will see real faces and will have the opportunity to observe that we are competent to govern the people. They will be able to ask questions and learn what type of people are American State Nationals being that we are claiming they are one too from birth. At these events, the Assemblies can witness and/or record Declarations for people to claim their inheritance back and hand out “What Does ‘Political Status’ mean?” and “Why Do You Need to Declare Your Political Status” educational brochures or they can be emailed to the people upon first contact. The Tour will start with the Counties that have the State Capitol building located there.

The official launch will be announced by the PKTF here: <https://pktfnews.org/states-2/resurgence-project/>. Volunteers are needed!

This newsletter has been limited to an overview of the first two phases. If you are interested in learning more details about Phases 1 and 2 or the latter Phases 3-6, including an overview of all six (6) phases presented by Louise on Zoom, visit the Think Tank’s YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/@The1776Union>.

The American Government’s Resurgence Project

Pre-Launch Overview
September 11, 2024

Pre-Launch Overview - Phases 1 and 2 of The American Government's Resurgence Project

Moving Forward with Peace and Honor to Confront Blatant Falsehoods Regarding the "Sovereign Citizen" Pejorative Campaign

By Joseph Hayse, Executive Director of PKTF

“...false claims alleged against peacefully and properly declared, recorded, published and cured statuscorrected
Americans living lawfully upon the Land and Soil of America.”

The Peacekeeping Task Force is taking the appropriate steps to peacefully counter all numerous logical fallacies asserted against the lawful rights of self determination from free and sovereign men and women on earth.

In the articles on our pktfnews.org site, our research teams and editor's will be reporting on loosely affiliated, yet fairly blatant and consistent false claims alleged against peacefully and properly declared, recorded, published and cured status-corrected Americans living lawfully upon the Land and Soil of America.

Such false allegations will be defended against those men and women in good-standing; having committed no criminal offenses, dishonor, or trespasses against any other living man, woman, or to any other of such same kinsmen, or their offspring - in any capacity whatsoever.

The Peacekeeping Task Force will further attempt to provide remedy through clarity of the following:

Any such false allegations against such innocent people, or People who have been, or are now somehow being, falsely...

- associated with in any way;
- financially supported or educated through;
- inspired or motivated by; or
- co-existing alongside or in receivership of promotion from—any Incorporated Citizenry of any fictitious Form or Substance who declares themselves as being that of a "Sovereign Citizen".

Likewise, we will soon be preparing to offer peaceful solutions to all other people's living upon other continents.

Similar tactics against other innocent people worldwide have been falsely alleged against, or being made subject to false claims by this same pejorative assertion from intellectually dishonest publication entities.

The Peacekeeping Task Force intends to lawfully assist with bringing a peaceful end to this continuous verbal neglect and reckless abuse for all lawfully declared sovereign men and women having been mischaracterized and subsequently mistreated.

The Peaceful Dismantling of the "Sovereign Citizen" Pejorative

Our work is just beginning on this topic, but our collective research over the past few years has returned numerous resourced findings on this contrived, social/political obstacle.

As we now struggle to schedule adequate time needed to pour over our gathered resources, then construct the necessary thought-provoking rebuttals, we return to the key factor of time deprivation. Nevertheless, The Peacekeeping Task Force (PKTF) will meet the challenge head-on as the only current American peacekeeping service capable (with the correct status, standing, and charter) to address each point one by one.

The pejorative term, touted as being a significantly (extreme) criminal element known loosely as "sovereign citizen" may have very well met its proverbial match in terms of valid talking points in debate format.

The key elements found fueling this pejorative are commonplace when entities who construct them are intent on seizing a narrative with blatant falsities riddled with well-placed, disingenuous, partial truths.

Seizing the narrative is vital in this manufacturing!

And so, we lean into this construct with what should be the obvious at this time - which is - the catch-all itself.

Sovereign & Citizen

Recognize that the two words are, indeed not congruent. This fact is what further establishes its characteristics in use as an oxymoron (or "moronic" < which is known as a feeble-minded diagnosis placed into practice during the early 20th century in America.

On this topic, PKTF Directors and Staff Liaisons who work within our Liaison Office will be dedicating our time and energy on flushing out all known details about this type of linguistic weaponization.

Our PKTF volunteers will attempt to reveal why a decades long, worldwide propaganda campaign has been maintained to merge these two, mutually exclusive words together. Along with the manner in which the words combined have been sculpted to form a destructive narrative for both words simultaneously, our team of researchers will work to properly dismantle it's crafty framework.

And so, let our current and future detractors (as well as those genuinely misled law enforcement and criminal investigators) be notified:

For the sake of peace and proper recognition for a safe environment for everyone, the lawful, peaceful people and People of the world are eager to set the true narrative upright. In this, we ask that the people and People of the world decide the facts and evidence as each decide for themselves - first in the court of Public Opinion, then (when need be) within a lawful Common law Court of Peers with a proper Trial by Jury.

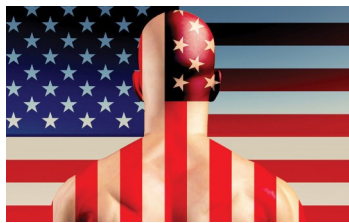

Our teams will be compiling all known, and future research findings for all to read, discuss, and share on all known social networking platforms.

We feel the time is long overdue! And that the pejorative (along with it's equally demeaning narrative) has certainly gone on largely unabated for far too long!

The "Sovereign Citizen" Pejorative is Sinking Fast!

While "the jury is still out", as the idiom goes, it is quickly becoming apparent as to the verdict on this "paper tiger" narrative.

The term "sovereign citizen" is, indeed dying a terrific death in the educated minds of kind-hearted people all across the earth. And the evidence surrounding this victory is just over the horizon.

The root cause for the end-of-life can be found by singling one word out of the equation. And that word is "citizen."

In this, the sovereignty expression begins to stand alone as a nonfactor. We will, however return to the embrace of sovereignty later, and how the desperate attempt to couple these two words together was perpetuated for an impressive 60 plus year's - until today.

As we turn our focus on the word citizen, along with it's etymology, we then begin transitioning into its Jurisdictional boundaries and service vicinity, it's vessel, it's roles and responsibilities, then finally to the Equal Rights associated with it's status.

As mentioned above, the jury is still out regarding its verdict on the matter. And, so, as we wait patiently for the presentment let us ponder just a few from among the mounds of evidence gathered so far.

Citizenry (as it's vessel being a "citizenship") is a necessary, limited status functioning within an evolved community of self-governing people. Citizenship (when joined into and navigated respectfully) should be experienced on behalf of the governed as a tremendous honor among mankind! And, in turn for this honor, such same levels of respect for serving the people be returned by the governed to its Citizenry (it's People) for their honest service.

When examining the evidence so far should be well known as an appreciative fact. People in service to people should always be appreciated, especially among communities where self-governance is what underpins the community as a whole.

What has been purposefully distracted from the entire equation, and of which has largely, successfully caused such confusion through its purposeful distortion up until recently has been that of the insistence upon "compulsory service." Compulsory service, or the persistent instance to carry the label (along with sensitivities for the Rights of such People" as a "Servant of the people") does seem to have been the linchpin.

Certain select intelligence communities, in all fairness to speculative observations have, therefore, seemingly thought it best to maintain an extremely loose affiliation between People who freely volunteer to serve others with honor, and those people who respect others in voluntary service.

These same intelligence communities have apparently attempted to maintain a fragile, yet potent narrative between the priority (compelling) need to maintain an honorable Citizenry, while simultaneously seeking to earn genuine respect among the people (sovereigns) for their service.

Empirical evidence has shown, thus far a consistent deficiency in both - a willingness by sovereign men and women to continue voluntarily serving other sovereign people who have consistently maintained a record of disrespect towards their servants over time.

Ongoing research of both the previous records, and current observations of the same undertakings are leading to these details being the prevailing evidence on the matter. When encompassing the lawful duty around self-governance and voluntary, yet necessary element of needing to serve those who are also responsible to self-govern inadvertently causes a very interesting paradigm!

“Citizenry (as it's vessel being a ‘citizenship’) is a necessary, limited status functioning within an evolved community of self-governing people.”

When abuses to servants, while in voluntary service to other's goes without correction only leads to even more disrespect to the opposing scale, (as well as a lack of future volunteer service) often leads to bitter animosities. It is at this point where a pivot has been shown to have taken place slowly over time.

We are beginning to uncover the finer details behind the notion of volunteer servants being neglected, disrespected, verbally abused and taken advantage of by those whom they have served. And, in all fairness to historic observations we can attest to the record as reflecting such a narrative whereby we are told that "harsh servitude" is, indeed a part of our past - at least on some level or another.

If this is the case, and of what we are experiencing today is a type of "turning the table" parallel shift in roles, as well as a sense of nullification unto natural jurisdiction, then we can start to appreciate such an attempt to press onward with using the "sovereign citizen" pejorative in an attempt to undermine by gaslighting those seeking lawful political status-correction by correcting the record to that of a foreign sovereign.

Now everyone among the sovereign men and women appears to be compelled to serve others (as part of a Citizenry), and that now everyone among the sovereign men and women appears to be receiving the same unilateral levels of disrespect by those who now behave with and maintain a self preservation "citizen sovereign" hybrid status.

And so, here we appear to be at this time. It bears repeating that the jury is still out on this as fact, but, the details are most certainly evident!

What might be the remedy of the above observations for the case in fact?

- The sovereign people must, themselves consider to continue temporarily volunteering to forego a portion of their own sovereignty to serve their communities, and to do so honorably.
- The sovereign people who remain fully sovereign must consider maintaining self-governance by upholding common law, while returning deserving respect to the People who serve their communities.
- The sovereign people must consider never to compel, manipulate, purposefully or recklessly mis-characterize, or deceive anyone to voluntarily (or involuntarily) serve another, nor foment the same exploitation upon anyone to remain in voluntary servitude beyond a reasonable length of term.

- The sovereign men and women must consider continuing to honor and protect the Equal Rights of the People (their Citizenry in service to their communities at all times.)

This very much appears to be where we are at this point in time!

Lawfully and Accurately Dismantling the False Assertions of the Sovereign Citizen Pejorative

The Strawman Argument and The Strawman Theory.

Some would claim the debate is nearly over. Others might suggest that the debate is just beginning.

Let us allow for the Court of International Public Opinion be the Measurer as to the state of discourse.

However, the elements of the facts of the matter in all respects have been obtained. And so, let the points of the debate commence as they will.

As a preface to the debate - here are the facts as we know them so far:

A strawman argument is a type of logical fallacy where an individual misrepresents an opponent's position to make it easier to attack. This involves creating a distorted or exaggerated version of the original argument and then refuting this weaker version, rather than addressing the actual argument presented by the opponent.

This tactic is often used to divert attention from the real issue and can be misleading, as it gives the illusion of having effectively countered the opponent's stance.

Criminal investigators and interrogators might use a strawman argument as a tactic by misrepresenting a suspect's statements or beliefs to make them easier to challenge or discredit.

This involves presenting a distorted version of the suspect's position, which can be more easily refuted, potentially leading the suspect to inadvertently admit guilt or provide more information.

Such tactics can be considered abusive if they manipulate the suspect into making admissions or confessions based on misrepresented arguments rather than factual evidence.

In criminal investigations, some poorly educated, or improperly informed individuals might attempt to assert their natural rights by invoking the "strawman theory", claiming they are "separate" from their "legal identity" and thus not subject to statutory laws.

This theory suggests that legal obligations apply only to a fictional "strawmen" created by nefarious government entities.

To properly move this alleged theory into the realm of being possibly factually based, investigators must exercise and conduct due diligence by researching such claims levied against the allegations of a "strawman" existence, rather than denying the possibility outright.

The remedy is embedded in the fact that "Strawman Arguments" are a factual, disingenuous tactic firmly identified as being used in an attempt to attack someone's authentic stance on a particular topic.

Any genuine investigator would then thoroughly investigate in an attempt to determine if this same disingenuous tactic has been exploited to also create an instrument of physical attack against living people. Logically, if it is possible to attack someone's belief structure through the use of a "Strawman Argument" for purposes of intellectual abuse, then it is highly likely that a "Strawman Entity" could also be created to exploit further fallacies.

At this point, the underlying difference between these two potential tactics, is that the "Strawman" strategy pivots from intellectual abuses and attacks, to physical abuses and attacks.

With regards to alleged "Sovereign Citizen" assertions, corrupt law enforcement have, and might continue to exploit this opportunity by using strawman arguments to carelessly, or purposefully misrepresent an apprehended and interrogated individual's position through crafty questioning, and thereby falsely assert that such claims oppose local laws. This tactic can lead, and has led to false reporting, portraying the individual as rejecting legal and/or lawful authority entirely, rather than simply questioning and attempting to confirm any legal and/or lawful obligations, or corrected political status.

In this observation, sincere investigators can clearly sense the parallel similarities between an individual "intellectual position" and an individual "political status" being set up for attack or exploitation by careless or disingenuous actors reporting false assertions by use of the "Strawman Argument."

For Safety Sake. Always remain mindful of your surroundings. Be aware of the stage cast before you, both as a spectator or as a potential player in the theater of life.

People deserve to be properly informed. While at the same time, people who accept nothing less than truth, will seek out a matter themselves, rather than relying upon other people or alleged government entities to determine anything on their behalf.

"First, in a republic, the government derives its powers from the people at-large or the whole body of the people, not from a privileged group or a favored class."

Self-governance in a Republican Form of Government

By Robert Moore, ASN on Nevada

Self-governance is the foundation of the American Government and refers to the capacity of the people to govern themselves by the establishment of their own decision-making processes without the imposition of any external authority. The term means the degree of an autonomy and an independence in the decision-making process in the various contexts and at the various levels of the governing structures.

The republican form of government represents a unique approach to self-governance that seeks to balance the freedom of the individual with the order of the collective through the representative institutions or instrumentalities by the strictures of the law. Unlike a pure democracy or an autocracy, republicanism empowers the people and citizenry to govern themselves, while establishing the safeguards against the tyranny of the majority and the concentration of the power in a single person or a separate faction.

prevent the subversion of the government by the nobles, by the elites or by the others, who may masquerade as the republic. Second, the persons of the administration of the government hold the tenures of their office by the appointment, either directly or indirectly, at the pleasure of the people for a limited time or during the good behavior.ⁱ

Whenever, "it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation."ⁱⁱ

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.”ⁱⁱⁱ

“[A]t the Revolution, the sovereignty devolved on the people; and they are truly the sovereigns of the country, but they are sovereigns without subjects ... and have none to govern but themselves.”^{iv} “Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law; but in our system, while sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the people, by whom and for whom all government exists and acts.”^v

“The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against Invasion; and on Application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened) against domestic Violence.”^{vi}

Real-Eye’s, Realize... Real Lies

By Kimberly Mayer Watling, ASN on Michigan

Dear Friends,

I have been given the tremendous honor to contribute to the First International Newsletter February 2025 focusing on this topic: Psychological Warfare Upon Us and Your Divine Armor. As I consider the writing on such a tremendously deep and important message needing to address smoothly, clearly, accurately, concisely and with hope . . . That’s no small challenge. And, I admit I struggled right up to this moment to compose this, for my own fears, my own reprogramming needed and perseverance’s despite it! “Terra Earth School,” as my grandmother would say, “isn’t for sissies”. She, again, was right. What a gift I had in her. Thank you Nana.

So, here we go!

In order to self govern, you must accept that you must be fully responsible.

It’s your biggest shield and your strongest defense. Self-Reliance and Self-Responsibility.

You are both the strongest and weakest link.

You were endowed by God as a living wo/man to be the caretaker.

You, your Soul agreed.

You are responsible for what you create. You

By these precepts, we have the perfect balance of the power between the creators and the administrators of the government. All are bound to uphold the first organic law that all men are created equal, which is a self-evident truth. For we know that we must govern ourselves from the inside or be governed by the others from the outside.^{vii} We formed our government and its instrumentalities on the foundation of the Republic, while reserving and guaranteeing to ourselves the Rights under the Republican Form because our sovereignty is not a subject of the law, but the “author and source” of the law. Thus, we of the people, honor our fathers, our mothers and our countrymen by the acceptance of the responsibility, by the exercise of the power and by the performance of the duty, which is the duty of the self-governance.

must be self-disciplined to turn from Evil in all it’s forms. Every-time. All-ways. You must act as if the whole world depends on you and simultaneously, humble your Schizophrenic ego states and “real-eye’s” when you Shine Brightest, it’s because we all Shine together built off the works of the whole, culminating in a pointed moment with you in the forefront. The moment we needed your perfect note... pa rum pum pum pum.

When born, We have entered a realm wherein all communications have been captured. The very many evil ways that ugly, nefarious, traumatic, criminal corporate empires, which have been Intentionally and Are Actively Underway, Perpetrated Upon Nature and Nature’s God and all Divine Creations, are very important to discuss and are being discussed. They must not remain long as our focus. We must re-direct and focus where we want to go. We must First, know where we are and from where we have come...

Please see the beginnings of this side of the Known Warfares perpetrated upon us and some urgent ‘to know’ information about these Psychological Warfare tactics active NOW, highlighted by Cheryl in this newsletter edition on Page 26, which Shines Light on WBAN and Sabrina Wallace's work! Health and Litigation Committees pay close attention. This will help us All into the future.

Focus where we want to go. Keep this in mind in the studies of Warfare. Though very necessary for peacekeepers in militia duty and role to study, these studies Must be tempered in how long you dwell here. Rest Assured, The Peacekeeping Task Force, The Federation of The United States of America and State Assembly's worldwide have been and will continue to assist with empowerment and comprehension through Education and Orientation Committees, Peaceful Militia Committees, Resurgence Projects and Outreach initiatives, new American Peacekeeping Platforms in radio, print media, news, video and podcast media, not tell-lie-visions. These will inform all men and women of the types of Warfares which have been used against and perpetrated upon us, the Good men and women, creatures and Terra Earth. We all will be further sharing Remedies, Restorations and Remediations while Moving to Assemble, Stand and Seat our American Government: of, by and for the people to correct our proper LAWS into Good order, thus ceasing these evils from the existing structure and malfeasance. These works are sourced by countless many who have awoken just like you and now aim to Be the Change. They have set their Freewill into action and their creative power and energy to Be the Change we wish to see.

Caution in Warfare Studies: The studies of the evils perpetrated upon us = the Warfares. When doing your studies, please be kind and responsible with yourself, and do so with the support of others who will help you to go as quickly and efficiently through these difficult Awakenings as can be. It will be hard; and you will know if this is your way, although it is your choice to know. If yes, put on the full Armor of God and go Ye' forth with The Lord's Grace.

Doing this alone will labor you more and lengthen your suffering needlessly. There are many ways to lift out of these horrors as we have the courage to face them and not get trapped in the lower level emotional vibrations this learning and lifting of veils elicits. Do so with Balance and use Nature and her glory to heal and recover as you learn where you are and you re-engage in your mission with us to Restore the Good.

To quote Andy Dufresne from the movie, The Shawshank Redemption, "Hope is a good thing, maybe the Best of things... and no Good thing ever dies." There is Hope. This, Hope is what I wish to address also. The Glory and The Hope of what Good is here and what Sovereign Remedies we can simply recall to help us with our own woundedness and our commanded "do-onto-others" compassion for other victims, as we illuminate ourselves up to full shine and the True Value of who we actually are.

Thankfully, Many have gone ahead of us and left crumbs of wisdom and knowledge, research and dot connecting. Still others are models of successful healing and offer helpful perspectives and techniques in safe passage through similar abuses to yours and can assist in healing. And, then there are the others... They, have No Idea what you, me or any of us are talking about! They will not be your best sources of help in this awakening. Each of us has been uniquely damaged and are victims of awful, terrible things. Things that the "Good" do not even know exist. Why do they not know? It is because they are "Good," and "Good" does not think outside of Love and Loving ways. In fact, hearing it causes Stress and "Cognitive Dissonance." Look this up! It is a "Survival Response," an automatic response to shock and disbelief. "Cognitive Dissonance" is the brain's attempt to protect when experiencing or re-experiencing trauma and in experiencing challenges to one's beliefs. We will revisit this again later.

Sovereign Remedy for the future: If it is not of, in, on, and for Love, it is not the right way. Atone, A-tune, back to loving vibration. Breathe and center in Love.

Be Kind. We have All been harmed. No One Escaped. So, we really are all equal. We were De-Valued; programmed to believe we were nothing; birthed into the wrong life; and set up to function in falsehood, outside of our own Truth. So, how is it we aren't all Truly Crazy?! The reality is: We are the Value. We are The Transmitting Utility. We are The Living Creative Power incarnate and animated man and woman in the flesh. You, Sacred Sovereign, have a Divine Contract "They" hid from you. You, yes You, are waking up to this miracle in this moment because Now, it is time to Shine! "They" trafficked us and made us human. A "part" Truth, as you will learn in the unraveling of the "Word Magick," that they have used against us!

Wow! A whole new language revealed! Legalese! Man, life makes way more sense now!

Sovereign Remedy: Study LAW! Learn the power of words and learn the meaning of them! Wow! Be very careful here! This is one of the Sacred Sovereign Super Powers! The Power of the Pen and the written word. Be wise with your power.

The "part" Truth..., in Fact, is that You are actually Hue Man - Man of Light or Light of Man, Colorful Wo/Man.

You are Divine Energy experiencing a wo/man dualistic life. The Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat. Maybe it's just the Tech-in-Color they are using to Man-IP-U-Late (manipulate) us. "I am late, I am late for a very important date!" It is called your Aura, your Bio-Field. The organ and shield that you didn't know existed—subtle energy bodies, trans-receivers of our physical form in service of its protection and power. How many of Adam's atoms are you made of in your walking, breathing miracle? Each one has a Nucleus – "if I only had a brain." Think "Strawman." Each one capable and adaptive: positively charged or negatively charged. Electrons electing to accept the chemistry or reject a chemistry in the dance of the Electron shells, setting the stage for a synaptic symphony on the Neurological network charged by the pumping heart from bellowing lungs ... aah the salt of life. The center of it all. Let there be Light. Light is the expression of Love illuminated. It is that which Evil has attempted to infiltrate, "Blacken"* and destroy from within. They tricked us into creating a living Hell, turning us against ourselves (our own cancer) by manipulating all, while we are distracted into giving consent. *"Blacken": Black's Law, Black Ink, Black Robes, little black dress... in the Black of night... Black Magic/Magick. How nice. (More on this another day.) <https://www.learnreligions.com/magic-and-magick-95856>

Sovereign Remedy: Maxim of Law: As it is bound, so it must be unbound. And we begin, the unbinding, the unweaving, the untangling, the unearthing, the understanding... and we rise up. Here comes the Sun!

The trick is to make Lemonade. A little bit of sweetness stirred in with a twist of Love will do the trick most every time! Love is the way. To all things there is a Season. Everything happens for a reason and is steering you toward your highest Good. Now, this is where it takes a True Sovereign. You, Freewill Sacred Sovereign, have a choice in front of you... what's your next step?

Sovereign Remedy: Do the next right thing! Choose wisely. If you mess up, get up, dust off, clean up ... try again.

Be Kind. It cannot be emphasized enough. Stop hurting each other. Stop hurting. It must begin with us. The journey of a 1000 miles begins with a single step. One step at a time. One Kindness at a time.

Live Golden: Do unto others as you would have others do unto you. What you create into existence returns to you. What you speak into existence cannot be taken back. Is it what you really want? What you Breathe into existence becomes enlivened; it is now your responsibility. If you live as if every thought and action affects another, positively or negatively, and not just in your own unique orbit. We are not separate from each other, rather we are One, united consciousness. Study the Butterfly and the Hundredth Monkey effects.

However, contrary to our intended lives, this realm has been manipulated and we landed in a dualistic reality that fragments our ability to perceive our Oneness easily. Through manipulation, especially of vibration, resonance and frequency along with matter manipulation, hope of our perfection was diminished into individuating rather than uniting our Souls for manifestation. Instead, they "Schizophrenia-ed" our ego personality causing distraction and emphasis on dualism – dueling: Black vs. White, Good vs. Bad, Democrat vs. Republican, Right vs. Left, Gay vs. Straight, etc. We are so distracted by fighting personalities pitted against each other, we forget the power in the Oneness and in the stillness with nature synchronization – aka Grounding and Meditations on Nothingness! found at: <https://twitter.com/QOSource/status/1883982224900624791>.

K.I.S.S. Keep It Simple Sovereign. ;) Start with the basic remedies: Common Law. Common Sense. Simple is as Simple does. If it's complicated = something is not yet Right. Pray. Humble yourself and ask the Divine to help it be it's best. Dedicate the Merit of what you do to The Highest Good. Breathe Goodness into your next best step. Intention means something in Common Law.

Use it wisely.

So, what's most important? You, Silly. ;) Sacred, Sovereign, You.

I feel it is most important to tell you how amazing you are. You are the Secret Pillar in your life and in your Assembly.

Sit with that...

So, it turns out that the Soul trap you landed in here on Terra has been infiltrated far more intensely and aggressively! Thanks! for your willingness to serve this mission and jump in to help! We apologize it's taken a lot more time than one would like but we are making headway! Sure, finding you and your lot on your Nation State and in your Assembly will expedite this Rescue Mission for the benefit of All. We must get you caught up to speed.

Let me prepare you; it's one amazing story! Dark chapters, very dark – what they have done to men and women, creatures, and Terra Earth! These chapters will also lead to and reveal the Light through the works, acts and duties of the Good. It will not be easy. But, maybe... easier. For many others have bled and died for this mission and many more will. Many, many more will Live this form out in Peace, in Harmony, and in prosperity. Health and Balance will be restored.

Ok.

Everything that you have to learn that hurts has a Golden End . . . Have Hope.

Friends, are you beginning to see it!...

You precious one, You. You are the most powerful creation in the Universe. You were made in The Image of God. You are The Living Flesh, Breathed into existence. You, Beautiful, Sacred, Sovereign, You. You are The Light of The World.

You are Valuable beyond what you are yet capable of comprehending.

"They" know how Valuable You are. "They," defined for now, are the perpetrators upon us.

As such, You/We all were human trafficked upon arrival. You/We all were denied our birthrights. You have, to this point, not yet really "Lived" your life. It was stolen from you. I am so sorry. Hug. This is such a big, long running plan that "They" also did this to your mother and father, their mothers and fathers, and their mothers and fathers, and their mothers and fathers . . . six generations of us all have been violated. The result is a collective consciousness with associated Highly emotional experiences about which we are all rightly entitled to grieve but inadvertently creates a massive Loosh field for which we all must come to "real-eye's" contains our collective and individual Woundedness that fuels dark, multi-dimensional

Thus, a part of my personal use of positivity is re-focusing unto Good and unempowering this field. Remember, Love is the most powerful force and will supersede everything else.

These highly emotionally charged events like the assassination of John F. Kennedy in 1963 with profound actions, messages and warnings proceeding his death... were crumbs being left for us. Hmmm, that would do the trick. Wouldn't it?

Silent Warfare

By Cheryl Ann Perko, ASN on Virginia

Situational Awareness – No Freedom without Free Will and Free Thought. Please visit <https://thevirginiaassembly.org/unifying-facts> for more information regarding BioDigital Convergence and Network Centric Warfare, the Silent Warfare.

On behalf of all people and Life on Earth, let us awaken to these facts and may these words fall gently upon your soul.

If we are aware of a crime, it is our duty to report it and seek remedy. We cannot take appropriate action without the clarity that comes from being willing to integrate new and essential facts and forgo false or uninformed beliefs. Let us prevent further usurpation of our Free Will and self-determination by bringing the Trans/Post-humanism/Bio-Digital Convergence Agenda out of the shadows and into the Light and return, to the people, the knowledge that we are energy, light, sound, geometric and electromagnetic expressions as our natural state, and that we each must claim sovereignty over our own Biofield and biometric data. I do not call us together from a place of fear. I call forth from a deep love for my brothers and sisters and the natural world, and my desire to no longer bear witness to unnecessary suffering and destruction of Life.

It is my vision that we move forward in full, unified awareness and begin intellectually sound discourse regarding all available options that will secure the health and well-being of all Living systems into the future. Due to the limitations of this short article, I offer only the bare minimum of facts and leave it up to your Due Diligence to obtain greater comprehension. For additional research, visit the hyperlinks embedded in this article, see the links at the top of Exhibit A, review the Psinergy Techmetric pdf, and/or research the terms on the BDC Terms for Research pdf which may all be found here: <https://thevirginiaassembly.org/unifying-facts>.

I have been asked to write an article about the Wide Body Area Network \(WBAN\) which is a difficult topic to bring forward in and of itself. However, it is one aspect (though it's a doozy!) of a massive usurpation against the entirety of mankind. Our biofields (a.k.a. the human aura) have been harnessed and serve as the physical layer (WBAN) of our current telecommunications system and serves as a layer of bio-cybersecurity. The augmentation of the entire population with biosensors, smart technology, and synthetic biology is difficult to come to terms with and out of all the deceptions, it is the most heinous. However, if we do not have full situational awareness, we cannot bring full and proper remedy, nor make informed decisions for our lives.

We have many inherent capacities that have been forgotten and have not been disclosed or accessible due to active poisoning, energetic/frequency weaponry and manipulation, and destruction and censoring of Ancient Wisdom and knowledge. We no longer hold the knowledge of the nature of reality nor the physics of our own beingness. My intention with this information is not to instill fear or anger but to bring proper situational awareness to the people and to bring awareness that each of us, as a living expression of Divine Creation are manifest in this realm as a unique essence comprised of light, plasma, sound, geometry, math and coding (DNA) and, of course, our physicality (muscles, bones, neurology, organs, cells etc.)

Based on the proper or improper functioning of the aforementioned aspects, we become the form and expression of our physical incarnation. We have electrochemical, electromagnetic, biophotonic, piezoelectric, and other functions of our anatomy both physical and occurring in our energetic aspects that are in an infinite dance and orchestration ultimately culminating in a unique expression of light, sound and a physical vessel. Interfering energies, both externally imposed by the globalist agenda and internally generated through attaching to and holding false reality and beliefs, detrimental ideation and the wounding of hearts and souls, disallows a clear and natural expression. When we are left unmolested, energetically and otherwise, we have immense power and potential. I believe we may all agree that no one should be allowed to meddle with the very foundations of our beingness, nor have access to the inner workings of our bodies and minds, unbeknownst to us.

In the early 1900's, the National Institute of Health removed information regarding the Human Aura and returned it to their database in 2015 as the Human Biofield. As they were feeding us false history, and generally dumbing us down, those that would control mankind were researching and ultimately mastering how to utilize and manipulate every beautiful aspect of our expression, including our biofield, culminating in ARPAnet in 1995. ARPAnet, now called the Wide Body Area Network is the use of the biofield of the people as an internet cloud system for data routing, storage and manipulation. The WBAN is 6G (IEEE 802.15.6). It is a layer of our telecommunications system. We are being forced, through a multi-vector planned attack on all Living Systems, to augment our organic biology with synthetic biology to interface more easily with computer systems. There is no Freedom without Free Will and Free Thought and I would surmise that the majority of us would not consent to this Bio-Digital Convergence.

The aim of current corporate "governments" is AI Governance and complete control of everything down to each blade of grass. BioDigital Convergence and Trans/Posthumanism through Human Augmentation is the desired result of the U.S. DODs current Warfare Doctrine, called Network Centric Warfare that uses AI driven Autonomy in Weapon Systems as per DOD Directive 3000.09, Section 1.2 d, and the DODs Signature Reduction Force, now fully implemented and where the signature to be "reduced" is your unique biosignature.

The ones that would subdue, genocide and enslave mankind have stolen our nationality, they have stolen our identity, and they now access and manipulate our biofield, DNA, brain signatures and cellular integrity. As fully surveilled subjects for targeted genocide and manipulation under Network Centric Warfare doctrine and a Global Information Grid system (now called the DODIN, Department of Defense Information Network), we are all sitting ducks in our collective ignorance. Additionally, the bio-cyber interface technologies have bidirectional abilities, meaning they can read/write to our brains and DNA (see CRISPR-Cas 9 gene editing for one example) to modify our natural genetic expression and alter brain functioning.

“The aim of current corporate governments’ is AI Governance and complete control of everything down to each blade of grass.”

“What is transpiring is not about left or right, or race or religion; it is about those who choose Life and those that choose to cause harm, manipulate and control others.”

They are energy harvesting, surveilling and manipulating us from the inside out and vice versa with molecular communication, smart dust and smart technology, and by weaponizing the entire Electromagnetic Spectrum of which we are part.

Rogue corporate “governments” and agencies (DOD, DARPA, DOE, DOT, DHS, FBI, FCC, IEEE and many, many others) are complicit in the use of light, sound, electronics, magnetics, pressure, vibration, biosensors, air molecules and more to alter our electromagnetic and biological essence. They are interfering with our organic, God given DNA resonance and ability to reprint natural biological tissues and are overlaying our neurology with synthetic biological materials and pollutants that we ingest, breath, and that are being injected by the medical and dental industries. They are shutting down and manipulating parts of our brains (see DARPA N3). They are routing and storing data in our bones and tissue via the WBAN networks. They use microfluidics, cellular/molecular communication and visible light communication, etc. to alter the natural processes of our bodies. Data fusion centers receive data from a world full of biosensors including sensors within the body (biotelemetry) and around the body (see Digital Twin) and AI is implementing algorithms for modification of our DNA and brain signature through a bidirectional (read/write) connection to supercomputers. Many vectors of harm are occurring because our energetic aspects are embedded in this telecommunication, network-centric system as a vital part of processing, storage and energy harvesting. See the Internet of Bodies (IoB), the Internet of Things (IoT), the Internet of BioNanoThings (IoBNT), the Internet of Medical Things, the Internet of Behaviors, etc.

Though they are interfering with our ability to communicate through brain alteration and molecular communication via air molecules, we must persist in broaching this subject matter with our family and loved ones who may be perpetuating the posthumanism agenda through their studies at University and/or or their employment for DOD departments of every ilk. The characters we are given through media, Hollywood and politics are low and insignificant pawns in the long term plan of the obscure “elitist” bloodlines. Let us not be distracted by their downfall. They are imprisoned by their choice to augment and serve the anti-life agenda and will be the ones the “elite” want us to focus upon while they continue the Silent Warfare. We must honestly assess the nature of, and the immediate and future consequences of, our actions and bust through the programming that we are “doing it to save the planet” or that mankind is the bane of this earth when it is really an ancient lineage of eugenicists and power mongering fools that are purposefully destroying every form of Life.

Our adversaries have, quite literally, breached our homes, our bodies, our trust, and every aspect of our lives. Our own men and women, sons and daughters are being used as cheap mercenaries and to murder, maim, and sterilize their own families and brethren. Colleges and Universities in America and abroad are teaching our children how to manipulate our genome, microbiome and otherwise alter the natural functioning of body systems through weaponized bacteria, biosensors, nanotechnology, molecular communication and bioengineering.

The living people do not consent to being “nodes on a network” on the Wide Body Area Network (WBAN, see IEEE 802.15.6 - 2012) or having our brain signatures scanned and modified by unmanned drones according to DoD Directives. We do not allow or consent to the accessing of our inner world or the workings of our minds, hearts, or consciousness by commercial corporations, medical doctors or members of law enforcement or any other nefarious actors with access to databases that store the biometric data of all people.

We have all been lied to by those in which we placed our trust. What is transpiring is not about left or right, or race or religion; it is about those who choose Life and those that choose to cause harm, manipulate and control others. The very act of carrying on without recognition of what is occurring perpetuates the continuation of the destruction of all of Life. Many have divested control of their own thoughts and actions by allowing external influences to dictate and direct their lives and steer them toward fear, anger and division instead of unity. It is time to weed out the lost souls from those that might have erred but may be redeemed through education and opportunity and strive to free the people of mental, emotional, financial and physical enslavement. Through collaboration and nurturing and maximizing the unique talents and gifts of each soul, we can coexist in harmony, joy and peace and build a world that is actually worth leaving for our offspring. In unity, let us oppose the things and people whose actions and ideas are leading to death for the people, animals, the plant life and all that is vibrant and alive. My eternal love and gratitude are with those who speak what is True and stand in their knowing and strength, no matter the consequences.

The California Assembly - Progress and Pains of Assembling

By Michelle Maher Ford, Coordinator for The California Assembly

It goes without saying that there are always multiple perspectives, activities, observations, and testimonies when an account of “progress and pains of assembling” is considered. With that being said, thank you to Louise Anthony, for inspiring me to write about such. This is my perspective of the progress and pains of assembling.

After having been a political activist in the area of Health Freedom since 2012 and having been an avid independent researcher, I was one who confused the oxymoronic “Sovereign Citizen” agenda with the path to freedom, and had concluded that it wasn’t for me. With that being said, my journey of assembling began in early 2021...during the peak of covid-insanity.

A friend I had met along the way, Nancy Kramer, contacted me to say “We are assembling”. Immediately, I knew it was the answer to every outstanding question I had remaining about breaking free of this incorporated, Babylonian, commercial system. Within days, I corrected my status and got involved with The California Assembly, first volunteering as a State Assembly Recording Secretary, then as County Coordinator for The Los Angeles County Assembly, and ultimately the Coordinator for The California Assembly.

The early days of assembling proved to be very rewarding. Everyone, it seemed, was motivated. There were countless hours and days of volunteering, collaborating, organizing and outreach. Creativity flowed and it was like a golden age of “all hands on deck”. People on California brought their skills and talents in service of the overall goal. I began teaching weekly classes on Zoom called “Common Law 101” and “YAY! I’m on the Land! Now What?”, while I continued studying nuances of life on the Land & Soil. There were counties populating, committees forming, work being done, and tech infrastructure being built. There was trust. It was palpable and our progress was quantifiable.

Soon after that, a “split” happened when it apparently became evident to Anna and The Federation that many on our assembly were wrongheaded, acting as if this was a democracy and promoting a corporate-model mindset. That “split” resulted in a loss of hundreds of people (literally) who were dismayed and disgusted that in one fell swoop, our progress could be stopped. Many folks did not embrace Anna’s actions. County participation dwindled, friends parted ways as they felt the need to “pick a side”, and nearly all of the State Assembly Recording Secretaries left our Assembly along with our stamps and seals. The bank account was gone, the tech-developments too, like website, social media accounts, and email lists...all gone. Poof. Just like that.

The California Assembly survived and kept going. We held General Assembly meetings, but the absence of so many folks was felt by all who remained. We had to tighten our bootstraps, refocus, and keep the candle lit for more to see the light and the necessity to assemble lawfully and properly.

Keep in mind that as assemblies, we need to stay true to restoring the lawful government. We are not reinventing, remodeling, restructuring, renovating, or redecorating. Restoring requires ample study...nobody knows everything, so we rely on each other in our assemblies to help provide resources to support the work being done.

Anyhow, we began the work once again. People started volunteering, offering to help and stepping forward. New stamps and seals were made and adopted, new State Assembly Recording Secretaries were affirmed, and we started moving ahead once again in 2022.

Another pain was brewing...and unfortunately, we learned we had a “rogue” Vetting Committee with volunteers who played favorites, which caused an investigation. The investigation revealed not only rogue Vetting Committee volunteers, but a plot to target one man, one woman, and a “takeover” of The California As-

“That ‘split’ resulted in a loss of hundreds of people (literally) who were dismayed and disgusted that in one fell swoop, our progress could be stopped.”

“We will not only recover, but we will get it right. We will thrive, and we will be a shining example of what ‘The Golden State’ is.”

sembly’s assets once again. Wow! Talk about a massive blow! In the Fall of 2022, the Vetting Committee had to be entirely shut down by The Federation. This caused a number of people to “take sides” once again, which caused further unrest and the loss of many, many volunteers.

The California Assembly hunkered-down, formed an Elections Committee and began the work of creating a future that we could all grasp and rally-behind. Suddenly, there was hope again, people were stepping-up in great numbers, willing to offer their best talents to The California Assembly. All eyes were focused on having a successful election and convention. It all came together beautifully. All seats were filled by lawful election, all Elected Officials were affirmed, and things were really looking up!

Suddenly, there was gossip, fornication, finger-pointing, fighting, suspicions, and sadly “secret” planning meetings outside of the General Assembly were happening. Another plot to take over The California Assembly was discovered.

Meanwhile, the Elected Officials had to have their names published in the newspaper and as the January 31, 2024 deadline approached, they had to make a choice...be published, or step down. Approximately half of them in solidarity, and in obvious defiance of restoration, stepped down. A whole year (all of 2023) was ultimately wasted. Out of sheer frustration, sadness, fear, and loathing, even more people stopped participating. Numbers dwindled, finger-pointing continued, everyone searched for the source of the cancer that kept harming our Assembly.

The Elected Officials that stayed on, had their names published and kept the lamp lit. The year 2024 has been devoted to trying to keep our Assembly safe from secret-anys. Transparency, consistency, dedication, and a genuine interest in keeping evil at-bay has consumed much of this difficult year with a string of necessary “time-outs”, and the encouragement of those time-outers to embrace more learning.

We have not recovered yet from the challenges in 2024, and our numbers remain quite low, as only two of our State Assembly Recording Secretaries consistently introduce newly status-corrected folks to The California Assembly. Few people still volunteer, and a small few continue to remain dedicated to the task at-hand. A small few regularly study and sacrifice their time, talent, and spiritual gifts. Thankfully, it only takes a remnant and no weapon formed against innocent people shall prosper.

In 2025, we will hunker-down once again. We will focus on the 4 Pillars and form necessary committees. We will be doing more outreach and encourage functions to be done. We will not only recover, but we will get it right. We will thrive, and we will be a shining example of what “The Golden State” is. The California Assembly will stand-up and be seated. It will happen.

If I may offer up some friendly encouragement:

- ~ Remember your “why,” and stand firm
- ~ Comprehend restoration
- ~ Use your strengths, and encourage others to use theirs
- ~ Stay focused while also making sure that everyone is heard
- ~ Know that there are no “sides,” there’s just one lawful Assembly...choose it
- ~ This process happens by committees
- ~ If you don’t know something, look it up
- ~ Stay encouraged

Thank you,
Michelle Ford

Reflecting on 2024: Terra Australis States Assembly's Year of Momentum

By: Darren ©, Queensland Region Coordinator

As 2024 comes to a close, we reflect on the incredible progress made by the Terra Australis State Nationals (TASA) movement. This year has been transformative, laying the foundations for assembly-based self-governance and bringing our vision closer to reality. Here are some of the highlights of this landmark year:

1. Public Announcement of Self-Governance (12 January 2024)

On this historic day, we publicly announced our intention to establish assembly-based self-governance across six states, publishing declarations in every paper willing to print them. This marked the beginning of a collective journey to reclaim our authority and realign governance with the will of the people. Since then, TASA coordinators and volunteers have worked tirelessly to shape a governance framework truly by and for the people. We are proud of our Nova Zeelandia brethren who also announced their intention to self-govern on 19 December 2024.

2. Structural Development and Outreach

We lean heavily on the work of Anna and the American assemblies but we have a very different starting point to America. We are nearing completion defining the structure and key offices of the assemblies to suit local conditions. This work and these structures will ensure the assemblies are not merely symbolic but effective in enabling the voice and will of the people.

3. Darren & Muki's Nationwide Tour

In an extraordinary effort to spread the message and grow participation, Darren and Muki embarked on a 20,000-kilometre journey, holding 36 meetings over three months. They connected with communities all across Terra Australis, answered questions, and inspired action. This monumental effort has significantly boosted awareness and enthusiasm, bringing countless new participants into the fold.

4. Upgraded TASA Website

This year saw major improvements to the TASA website, transforming it into a central hub for resources, updates, and information. With a focus on accessibility, these upgrades have made it easier than ever for people to comprehend assembly-based governance and join the initiative. We proudly launched new websites for the State Assemblies, tailored to support each State's Nationals with localized information, events, and updates. Additionally, Local Assembly websites are ready for roll-out, empowering grassroots engagement and fostering collaboration at the community level.

5. Launch of State and Local Assembly Websites

We proudly launched new websites for the State Assemblies, tailored to support each State's Nationals with localized information, events and updates. Additionally, Local Assembly websites are ready for roll-out, empowering grassroots engagement and fostering collaboration at the community level.

6. Credential Cards Initiative

With the addition of new printing capabilities and website upgrades, Credential Cards for re-conveyed State Nationals are now available. This initiative has been warmly welcomed, with its benefits becoming increasingly apparent as more participants utilize the cards.

“This progress demonstrates that TASA is not just inspiring awareness but also empowering meaningful action.”

7. Preparation for the Public Education Tour

In preparation for the 2025 Public Education Tour, thousands of copies of Anna Von Reitz’s “You Know Something is Wrong When...” book have been printed and complemented with twenty-five autographs from almost one hundred dedicated State Nationals. These books will be distributed to policy enforcers at all levels of “GovCo.” This powerful tool will educate individuals about their role within a fraudulent system deliberately harming and exploiting them. This initiative will also highlight the necessary and non-belligerent work of the assemblies, hand-in-hand with the PKTF Liaisons wherever possible.

8. Growing Participation in Assemblies

The number of reconveyed State Nationals has grown steadily throughout 2024, with increasing levels of active participation in both State and Local Assemblies. This progress demonstrates that TASA is not just inspiring awareness but also empowering meaningful action.

9. Launch of The Terra Australian

In December, we celebrated the launch of The Terra Australian, a national forty-page quality community paper dedicated to empowering readers with tools, knowledge, and solutions for building a world free from oppression. By focusing on lawful self-governance, historical insights, and community empowerment, The Terra Australian has become a powerful voice for the assemblies.

10. TAPKTF Developments

The Terra Australis PKTF (Peace Keeping Task Force) received a significant boost this year.

Richard Evans was appointed National Coordinator, a dedicated website was launched (<https://pktf.terraaustralisstatesassembly.com/>), and groundwork for a recruitment program began. The assemblies eagerly look forward to working with Richard and his team in 2025 to bring peacekeeping, emergency response, and defense structures to life.

Building a Unified Vision for 2025

Throughout the year, we’ve worked tirelessly to foster unity and cooperation, ensuring that diverse voices within our community are heard. With an array of powerful communication tools now in place, we are poised to take even greater strides in 2025.

Why These Achievements Matter

These milestones demonstrate the growing strength, purpose, and influence of TASA. By building the infrastructure for assembly-based self-governance, connecting with communities across Terra Australis, and educating individuals about the path to freedom, we are reclaiming our ability to govern ourselves.

The work accomplished in 2024 has set a solid foundation for even greater achievements in the year ahead. Together, we are shaping a future where governance reflects the will of the people rather than corporate or foreign interests.

Here’s to an inspiring and transformative 2025!

Properly Honoring Our Military Veterans

By Joseph Hayse, Executive Director of PKTF and Veteran

Seeking Ways to Properly Recognize and Honor all Prior Service Members Who Have Also Honorably Served

As a Veteran who honorably served our United States of America for nearly 25 years, I can definitely agree with many of what our current service members express regarding status correction.

Often, I've heard and read other members say, "I'm more than ready to retire, but I'm not so sure they'll let me just 'walk away' from all this accumulated experience without some strings attached."

The reasoning behind why these particular service members express this particular concern is because, in many ways, it rings true. Indeed, there are methods by which the United States Government seeks to retain as many prior service members as possible after having honorably (or even less than honorably) fulfilled their service contract. In a world of sustainable, corporate optimization this simply boils down to a logical practice in retention.

However, as most of our readers suspect, little to no real measure of logical, moral, or ethical practices by those acting within Washington, D.C. (playing the part of military oversight) on behalf of the best interest of American servicemembers or their families. And so, this is largely why The Peacekeeping Task Force has taken an extra step to help ensure no further, future service exploitation or assumed obligation is assumed upon any prior service member, or family member.

The Peacekeeping Task Force (PKTF) also established a LinkedIn page for all people seeking to increase exposure to, or about their own professional experience, education, and other relevant skill sets.

Forums such as LinkedIn and others have shown to be a great way to help share such trade assets among people all across the lands; both near and far. This is why PKTF thought to utilize the same forum by helping encourage our readers to increase their participation in professional outreach strategies that are cost-effective with a solid approach.

Our offices continue to make space on our LinkedIn forum by reaching out to all relevant industry professionals.

Prior service members now seeking lasting career choices where previous experience can best be utilized and also other career-oriented people in other industries where service protection and honorable peacekeeping practices are welcomed.

If you or someone you know are a prior service member from any of our military branches with the United States of America, please find us here on my own LinkedIn forum. Here I share information and knowledge on the stark differences between military "Retirement" and "Expiration - Term of Service (ETS)" and other very important facts about military service beyond "Time in Service" under contract.

I very much look forward to seeing more career-minded, as well as service-minded folks over on LinkedIn soon.

We will continue to do our part to increase proper status-correction recognition practices where matters of neglect are experienced by those responsible for determining such recognition.

“Our offices continue to make space on our LinkedIn forum by reaching out to all relevant industry professionals.”

Don Ross & The Faith Monument

By Michelle Maher Ford, Coordinator for The California Assembly

“The largest part of the monument is called ‘Faith’, which is a visual reminder of the First Commandment.”

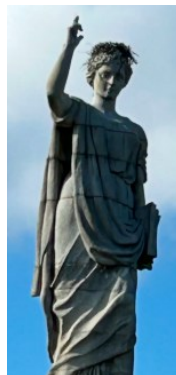

It was late January 2023 when I got a phone call from Donald “Don” Ross on San Diego, who was a relatively active participant of The California Assembly. Although we had never actually met, he reached out to me because I was The California Assembly Coordinator, and he told me he didn’t know who else he could talk to and get help. You see, he believed he had just experienced a stroke! Time would tell that he was right. He had a stroke and was hospitalized. On January 31, 2023, from the hospital, Don sent me a text message of this video link: The Monument To The Forefathers, in Plymouth, Massachusetts. He further explained that he grew up in Massachusetts and never even heard of this monument! Needless to say, neither had I. It was only the Statue of Liberty that was emphasized as I was growing up. The simple fact that this monument not only existed, but was not taught-about in school, piqued my curiosity and set me out on an independent research journey. I learned so much that was unknown to me prior.

Here are some basic facts I learned about The Monument to the Forefathers...the cornerstone of the monument was set on August 2, 1859, and the monument was dedicated on August 1, 1889 after taking 30 years to complete! It took so long to build, because the “Civil War” put a damper on resources. It is made of granite, stands at 81 feet tall, and was ultimately paid-for by the 38 ratified states of the time plus small donations from thousands of people all over the country...including former U.S. President Abraham Lincoln who donated $10.

There are 5 total symbolic statues, named; Faith, Morality, Law, Education, and Liberty. The largest part of the monument is called “Faith”, which is a visual reminder of the First Commandment. Faith is pointing up to the Heavens and holding a Bible.

Beneath Faith is a testimony of gratitude to our Founders for their “labors, sacrifice and sufferings for the cause of civil and religious liberty.”

The first of the four lower-level statues is called “Morality” holding a “God” tablet, with inscriptions stating “prophet” on the left side, “evangelist” on the right side. There’s a depiction of the Pilgrims embarking on the Mayflower journey beneath her feet.

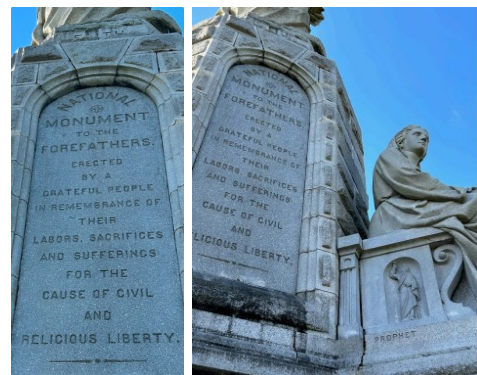

There’s part of a manifest of Mayflower passengers between “Morality” and “Law”, which is the next statue.

Beneath “Law” is a depiction of the diplomatic meeting before the Peace Treaty between the Pilgrims and local Wampanoag natives was signed. On either side of “Law” are “justice” and “mercy.”

To the right of Law, is an inscription from the 2nd Governor of the Colony, William Bradford, “Thus out of small beginnings, greater things have been produced by His hand that made all things out of nothing and gives being to all things that are. And as one small candle may light a thousand, so the light here kindled hath shone unto many, yea, in some sort to our whole nation. Let the glorious name of Jehovah have all the praise.” (Note: the Hebrew name of God transliterated in four letters as YHWH or JHVH and articulated as Yahweh or Jehovah.)

To the right of the Bradford quote is the statue named “Education”, with “youth” and “wisdom” inscribed on either side. Education is holding a Bible and beneath her feet is a depiction of the signing of The Mayflower Compact.

To the right of Education is the next Mayflower manifest of passengers, and then to the right of that is the statue called "Liberty", with an inscription of "tyranny" (overthrown) on the left and "peace" on the right. Liberty is a warrior that slayed the beast, and broke the chains of tyranny. Beneath Liberty's feet is the depiction of the Pilgrims landing at Plymouth Rock.

The more I researched, the more my desire grew to see the monument for myself. As my desire grew, so did my enthusiasm and I could hardly keep myself from sharing about the monument, and a possible trip, with others. The idea to create and announce an official trip for all Assemblies to go to Plymouth to celebrate the 404 Anniversary of the Mayflower Compact from November 11, 1620 was born. The idea resonated with everyone I shared it with one-on-one, until I ultimately shared it on a Countrywide Coordinator call and created an Eventbrite page where folks could RSVP.

At some point, Ohio Chairwoman Lisa Schaffer stepped-in to help by organizing and planning fun activities. Thank God for Lisa's trip-planning skills and experience. She found memorable activities, restaurants, and sites that we could voluntarily participate-in, so because of her, we got to go to the following places:

- ~ Pilgrim Hall Museum
- ~ Plymouth Rock
- ~ Plymouth Patuxet Museum
- ~ Mayflower II
- ~ The Grist Mill
- ~ The Jenney Museum
- ~ East Bay Grille
- ~ the National Monument to the Forefathers
- ~ Tavern on the Wharf

As a result, people from 10 State Assemblies came out to share in the fun. We broke bread together, visited unforgettable historic sites, and made friends and memories that will last a lifetime. A super memorable afternoon happened...a private, impromptu gathering with local Historian, Leo Martin and his wife Nancy...which happened after I got to meet with Author, Marian Hannah Carlson at a Farmer's Market near The Jenney Museum! To our amazement, Leo was there when we arrived without an appointment! We shared stories about the great restoration and also got to hear the harrowing tale of how the Martins acquired The Jenney.

Actor, Kirk Cameron, has a movie called Monumental, all about the National Monument to the Forefathers, and there's also a great book by Michelle Gallagher titled Forefathers Monument Guidebook. Both Kirk and Michelle have contributed greatly to the sheer wonder and historical significance of this national treasure, The National Monument to the Forefathers.

Whatever you do be sure to add a trip to Plymouth to your bucket list.

As we kick-off 2025, there are 2 important upcoming trips you need to know about. The first of which came about because The Ohio Assembly is the first Assembly stand. We are all invited to join The Ohio Assembly in September for the 2025 American States Assemblies Annual Family Trip on "Put-In-Bay," September 10-15, 2025! You do not want to miss it! Here's the link to let Lisa know you'll be joining us: <https://www.eventbookings.com/b/event/the-american-states-assemblies-family-reunion-2025>.

The second will be in Philadelphia for the 250th Anniversary of the signing of The unanimous Declaration of Independence of July 4, 1776! Stay tuned for further details about that trip as I will soon work with The Pennsylvania Assembly Coordinator, Glenn Neiffer, on the details of that trip.

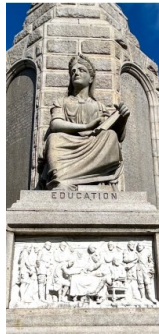

Also, I want to shout-out to my mom...

and dad, whose anniversary is August 2, 1958, exactly 99 years after the first cornerstone of the National Monument to the Forefathers was set. I love you Mom, and I know Dad is in Heaven looking out for us.

Thank you for bringing us to America, and thank you that I get to be your daughter.

As for Don Ross, he went to Heaven on March 21, 2023, a short time after mom and I went to visit him at the hospital.

Don Ross will always be remembered as the man who sparked my whole idea of honoring our Founding Fathers and the great restoration at Plymouth. Don has imprinted a huge amount of gratitude in me, and I can't thank him enough for sharing about The National Monument to the Forefathers. He will always hold a very special place in my heart.

It is with gratitude that I also honor Anna Maria Riezinger, to whom love and respect flow abundantly. Without her and her devoted husband, James Clinton Belcher, there would be nobody to have answered the call to assemble all 50 State assemblies! Anna's teachings and call to action have sparked a movement, founded on faith. Faith that God will bless us once again with the opportunity and immeasurable responsibility of self-governance.

Lastly, it simply would not be right to submit this article without thanking God. Thank you, God, for your abundant blessings. Thank you for putting it on our hearts to listen to you, answer the call, and to be obedient to your Word. May your love propel us forward, and may we succeed this time in living a life worthy of your mercy and grace.

Happy New Year, one and all!
Love, Michelle Maher Ford

Situation Update—“Mr. Trump”

By Anna von Reitz, Fiduciary of The United States of America, Unincorporated
12-9-2024 Webinar Excerpt

Anna:

There has been a major, major upset in the world of diplomacy and a break with a long tradition of government leaders not talking about the dark web contract world where people have basically bounties placed on their heads for assassins to come kill them. And today we hear President Putin saying that they have the evidence of a $45 billion contract being offered by the World Economic Forum to kill President Trump. Well, President-elect Trump, President Trump. $45 billion.

Terri:

Okay.

Anna:

So, now I have an insight to offer President Trump. Congress does not set according to positive law. Since 1861, Congress has been appointed by executive order, which means that it's a territorial military government and it has no substantive law of its own.

Now, this is convenient if your intention is to act as a mercenary force and make money off of mercenary activities, because such a government can never sue for or declare peace, actual peace. Only those who have actual law can create peace, which means the people of this country. Well, you will notice that we have declared peace, but Mr. Trump doesn't know the background. Or if he knows the background, if he knows the true law, if he knows what happened in this country, he's surely making a really good imitation of somebody who doesn't have a clue. So, now the WEF has put out an absolutely staggeringly huge bounty seeking to have him killed, just like they had Kennedy killed. And Mr. Trump, besides hiding out in Cheyenne Mountain or some similar action, always looking over your shoulder, always having to live in fear of these criminals, this is what we can do. You can recognize the fact that the people of this country are the actual owners of this country; that we are alive and well; and we're here still as ever; that our government is now in session and has been in session since 2019. You can recognize our Peace Declaration, which was issued several years ago, and that's why we are flying the peace flag. Now, Mr. Trump, we can do things that your government can't dream of doing, because we have the standing to do it. We have the substantive rights that are necessary. And what we can do, and what you cannot do, is that we can nationalize as many or all of these corporations as we choose to. And we don't have to ask anyone about it, because we're not only the presumed donors, we're the heirs.

This is a process called lawful conversion. And because our country was used as a pirate base to expedite these acts of piracy and criminality among corporations that were being operated as privateers and in other criminal capacities, we are the ones that own them. We are their priority creditors.

We are the ones that have the actual power of the law behind us, and we are the ones who can lawfully convert all of these WEF members. Now, what happens when you lawfully convert a corporation and quote-unquote nationalize it? It comes under the jurisdiction of the land.

It comes under national and public law. So it comes under a different form of law. And suddenly these corporations, which have been running amok and running rampant all these years and operating in such a lawless and criminal fashion and fomenting war, war, war, war, and more war for profit, and spinning off all of these groups that are labeled fascist and communist so that they can fight each other some more, all that goes away.

And I can tell you right now that at the end of the day, the Americans wind up owning everything. And we have it in our power to dispose of everything back to where it belongs. We have that right and we have that responsibility.

And you, Mr. Trump can help. You, Mr. Trump, can get rid of the WEF and take it over. We can do that and make it possible for all of the people on this planet to have peace, abundance, and freedom, and do it lawfully and legally and peacefully.

We have the ability to take over all of the corporations that are members of the World Economic Forum and nationalize those corporations right back under the control of the national governments. And that's what we suggest that you do with that $45 billion bounty placed on your head. I think it would be a very fitting reply to the WEF and all of the corporations and all the future leaders like Pierre Trudeau's son, Justin, and all the other oligarchs and elitist monsters that have been prowling around like ravenous beasts, seeking only to murder and steal.

Put them back under the law of the land and under the control of the national government. Our national government, for starters, but then also the national governments of all the other countries that have been the victims of this vicious fraud, all of this vicious privateering, all this horrible meddling that has taken place at the hands of the British government, the Westminster government, and the, well, the government of Ghent, and the secular government attached to the Roman Catholic Church, we can put them down. We have the lawful means.

We are their Priority Creditors. So this is a position of power over them that our hired help can't begin to amass or execute. All that our subcontractors can do is to fight against these powers that be, which they have been colluding with for the better part of a century.

The people of this country absolutely do need to get organized. But our position is not dependent on numbers. Our position is based upon identity.

And the way to think about this is to think of it in terms of inheritance. Say that there is a large estate and there are two dozen potential beneficiaries, heirs to this estate. Well, first of all, there is an obligation on the part of the court and any public government, or even a government acting as a public government, to make sure that a good-faith effort is made to reach all of the heirs.

That's number one. And that hasn't ever happened. Number two, if having made a good-faith effort to reach all of the heirs of this particular estate, only say 17 out of 24 show up.

Well, then the court has to acknowledge that there's a possibility that there may be seven more heirs or seven more known heirs, but they are not here. And so a disposition is being made of the property and estate in favor of those heirs that did show up. And it doesn't matter if only one heir showed up and claimed the estate, and there was one valid heir, then the whole estate goes to them.

And it doesn't mean that they get the estate as a whole. It means that they get the estate with the provision that 23 other people could show up and claim their part. And additionally, there may even be other people that aren't present, who aren't known to the court, but nonetheless could come forward and by a DNA or other means, bring a valid claim.

Now, our particular inheritance, which represents the states and all of the natural resources of this country, have been put through any number of legal loopholes. And the same thing, by the way, has been done in Britain, in Spain, in France, in the Netherlands, in Denmark, in Sweden, in Norway, in Lithuania, in Poland, in Germany, in Austria, in Italy, and throughout the entire Commonwealth system, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, even Japan. Okay?

Mr. Trump, I'm telling you something of the greatest importance, not only to your own life, but to the life of the planet. Stop messing around. If the military knew what was going on, then the military is complicit.

If the military didn't know what was going on, it was incompetent. Those are our choices. I would rather believe that they are and were incompetent and that they're all just finding out about all this stuff right now.

I would much rather believe that than believe that they self-interestedly hoisted all of this off onto their country and their countrymen. In any event, recent statements, including a complete, utter misunderstanding of what the 14th Amendment is, who it applied to, what is meant by birthright citizenship, all of this leads us to think that you really don't know what's going on. And we have the answers.

We have the substance. We have the position, both as donors, grandfathered in, and as inheritors and beneficiaries of all of these various trusts. The other thing that we want to tell you, Mr. Trump, we don't know if you're playing for Trump change or if you're just really trying to pull the wool over the eyes of the people of this planet. And for what reason, we don't know. But 600 trillion is literally a drop in the bucket. It may be what is owed to our military, to our veterans, in terms of back pay, in terms of stock options that they owned but were never told about, in terms of educational guarantees, in terms of home funds, home ownership funds that were never dispersed, in terms of insurance that they were owed and never benefited from.

Yes, it may be that our military veterans throughout those countries affected are owed 600 trillion because, let's face it, they haven't been treated fairly, they haven't been told the truth, and they haven't been given their benefits with any kind of sobriety on the part of the bankers for 160 years. But 600 trillion isn't even the beginning point of a discussion concerning the substantive value that the average people of the countries involved have suffered and lost and had to repay and rebuild and pay bogus interest on their own money and on their own credit. It's not even the beginning of a spit in the wind when you compare the losses that the actual living people have suffered and the abuses of quote-unquote, private direct taxation, which was never allowed under our constitution or any other actual national government.

All of this stuff has to be addressed, Mr. Trump—the whole issue of the quote-unquote national debt, which is not our national debt, but is instead the debt of the British territorial United States. We have a great many issues to address that are like that, and we have a lot of research, a lot of research that can pinpoint for you exactly where the bear went through the buckwheat.

Situation Update (cont'd)

Anna Von Reitz Webinar-12-9-2024 Excerpt

Anna:

This past week, I published an article that gave you everything you really need to know to get started on the issue of the unratified 14th amendment. Now, you may ask yourself, how can an unratified constitutional amendment be enforced? The same way that all the rest of this has been done by executive order of a Commander-in-chief operating as the President of a British Territorial corporation, pretending to be us.

Everything that has been done since March of 1861 has been done on a premise of resolutions. Oh, we, the members of the Congress, resolve to behave ourselves and to pay our debts. And each and every one of us who has ever made a new year's resolution and failed it knows exactly how much that's worth.

Mr. Trump, save yourself. Save everyone on this planet. Hear what we're saying.

Notice, realize who we are. Realize that we do know what we're talking about. Know that your military advisors, as they are scrambling, trying to catch up, are not the absolute be-all and end-all of the people you should trust.

Not on these issues. If the military and the civilian government, the actual civilian government of this country, come together, there is not a force of nature on this planet that could deny who we are and our right to do what we're doing. And I don't believe that our neighbors in China or Russia or Iran or any of the other countries would object, because they've been victimized by the same industrial and corporate, commercial corporate and municipal corporate interests that have defrauded and abused us for 160 years.

We all have our reasons for destroying the World Economic Forum or disbanding the present iteration of the United Nations, which is not so much a gathering or organization of nations, but a gathering of corporations representing nations, which is quite a different thing. Mr. Trump, I'm a great grandmother from Big Lake, Alaska. If I know these things, don't you think that other world governments know that what I'm saying is true?

Do you think for a moment that the Vatican doesn't know that what I'm saying is true? Do you think that the Russian government is unaware that what I'm saying is true? Although the facts we've uncovered span more than a normal human lifetime, governments have a considerably longer lifespan and memory, especially when it comes to the arcane subjects of who owes who what, whose land is where, and who owes what in terms of treaty and contractual obligations.

Among the 5,000 private trusts that have been subsumed under false legalistic fraud, there are trusts that have values in the dodecaillions, numbers like 240 plus 240 zeros following, representing cash assets and credit derived from those assets and interest that was charged on those assets. Our American private trusts account for a very large percentage of world assets in general, whether it's gold, silver, land, or anything else. And why is that?

It's because we paid. We paid. We paid in actual goods and services and resources, the bills of the entire world for decades at a time.

Mr. Trump, it is incumbent upon you to end the illegal occupation of our country by our own military. It is incumbent upon you to stop the hemorrhaging and the embezzlement of our resources and assets. Do you realize, Mr. Trump, that $800 million total has been spent on our veterans this past year?

That is the magic number that it has cost to maintain our troops in the field all over the world and over 950 military bases, plus everything for the Veterans Administration, all of the various benefits paid out to veterans, everything, $800 million. Are you aware, Mr. Trump, that during the past four years, Ukraine has been given, given, given, $114.2 billion with a B? So, let's compare, $800 million per year, considerably less than $4 billion spent on our military over the past four years, and $114 billion, billion, 114 times more, probably 130 times more spent on Mr. Zelensky.

Terri:

Hello. Talk about the conscience of a nation.

Anna:

Talk about all your military supporters who are taking it in the shorts. The truth of the matter is, is that those men are not only owed all their back pay and restitution, their share of the $600 trillion, they're also owed their share of their national endowment. They're also owed their land back.

Mr. Trump, we find it very difficult for us to believe that you are unaware of these facts—that they are unaware of these facts. And for the past four years, we've been standing here waving the olive branch, writing you nice letters, sending you emails, giving you evidence to consider, doing everything that we possibly could within the constraints that we are under at the moment in terms of what we can do, such as the fact that we can't, in good conscience, participate in your corporate elections because we are not shareholders.

Okay. But given our constraints of those sorts, we've done everything we could to reach out to you, to give you valuable information. And what we get back is always back-channel chatter.

Other governments in the world recognize who we are. Why the hell can't you? We're the people, the actual people, the actual nation of the nation-states, the sovereign nation-states, not the territorial nation-states, not the municipal nation-states, but the nation-states of this country.

We are the ones that can declare peace and make it stick, and we've already done so. See the flag. By what possible excuse do our federal subcontractors operating under our delegated powers and under a constitution have for continuing to destroy and discredit our Title IV flag?

Under what pretense does your corporation continue to operate when it has been brought to the attention of the public internationally that our Title IV flag is supposed to be flown in wartime and our delegated powers are supposed to be operated during wartime, but not as a commercial mercenary conflict emblem and banner? We are telling you boldly, plainly, in public, on the airwaves. The quote-unquote American Civil War was never a war.

It was an undeclared and disguised illegal mercenary conflict. And every single thing that has happened ever since in terms of these conflicts have been conflicts and not wars, because the actual government that has the ability to declare war was not in session. This is plain English, Mr. Trump. And if the military is serious about wanting to clean up the mess which has been left on its doorstep since 1863, then the military needs to take action and not just endlessly promise to take action. To clean this mess up, Joe Biden has discredited, dishonored, and disgraced his position as the President of the United States Corporation, one of the federal subcontractors. He did it on public television when he recounted how he abused his power as the Vice President of the United States, Incorporated, to have a Ukrainian prosecutor who was investigating his son Hunter's attachments to a Ukrainian oil company, Burisma, fired and using aid to Ukraine to leverage this.

He bragged about it. He's a criminal. He's a disgrace.

He always was. He was a disgrace on that score before he was quote-unquote elected. And we all know that that man was never elected by the people of this country.

He may have been elected by a foreign electoral college, predominated by European continental interests, but he was not elected by us. And now he's reprised this by pardoning his son Hunter and again, burying the evidence of crime and dishonor. Mr. Trump, we are very tired of seeing our country drug through the mud by our subcontractors. We're sick and tired of British meddling and British BS. Now our will is to have a peaceable, civilized, business-like rapprochement and to work together toward restitution for the victims. And part of that rapprochement and restitution should logically include the nationalization of such obnoxious corporations as the Federal Reserve, Pfizer, the IMF, the members of the WEF, all of those that have taken part in betraying the entire world population for their own gluttonous, unjust enrichment and power mongering.

And right here in the hands of a relative handful of old farts, a few hundred people, are the keys, the actual lawful means to seat a land and soil jurisdiction Congress, the true perpetual union. And the only perpetual union that has ever existed to stand in our position as the Priority Creditors, to nationalize all of these criminal corporations, to put an end to globalism, transnationalism, and transhumanism. That is our right and that is our power.

And you're still dinking around, chasing around with the military boys and believing a whole bunch of BS, apparently believing such a bunch of BS, about such things as the 14th amendment, which was never ratified and was never owed any kind of enforcement against anyone, ever. So I trust that your friends will give you a copy of this and I hope that you take the time to listen, because this is a message straight and direct to you from the people of this country, the actual people who have returned from over the sea and are sick and tired of being misidentified and having their identity stolen.

Thank you very much.

A Collaboration

This Newsletter is a collaboration between the International Outreach Think Tank, a non-governmental body of American State Nationals and The Peacekeeping Task Force for the Federation of States.

A group of declared Nationals coming from multiple State Assemblies across the United States formed an International Outreach Think Tank, initiated by Tammy Healy, an American State National on New Jersey, to pool together cross-Assembly resources and ideas for outreach that were working to bring Americans home to the land and soil. This group is a non-governmental organization of “loosely” organized American State nationals, meaning it’s members can come and go as they please. This group invited Louise to present her grassroots postcard campaign idea at their meeting and, subsequently, they agreed to officially adopt the postcard campaign and her entire proposed outreach ideas to assist in putting the project into motion with the anticipation of getting State Assemblies seated in an organized way. It developed into an entire 6-phase project given the name, “The 1776 Union Restored Nationwide Outreach Project.”

The Federation of States d.b.a. The United States of America, Unincorporated (1776) chartered The Peacekeeping Task Force to network together and educate the peacekeeping forces of our country, including the Constitutional Sheriffs, the State Assembly Militias, and our directly Commissioned Continental Marshals, who are the land jurisdiction officers interfacing with the US Marshals program. This instrumentality is responsible for providing peacekeeping services to the 50 State Assemblies and to participating Countries of the world. Upon reviewing The 1776 Union Restored Nationwide Outreach Project, they agreed to be the official umbrella over the project if Louise would direct the project as their Affiliate Director. They also offered their task force services through their Assembly Liaisons who will serve as the interface between our American State and County Assemblies and our de facto employees in Phase 3 of the project. While serving as the Affiliate Director, Louise then officially changed the project’s name to “The American Government’s Resurgence Project.” The project is scheduled to officially launch in 2025. The project status updates are posted at <https://pktfnews.org/states-2/resurgence-project/>.
